Real Autumn Arrives With 34-Low Due
City Escapes Snow But More Showers May Precede Cold

The East Liverpool area got more light showers this morning but some parts of Northern Ohio had snow and hail as temperatures dipped in the first break in autumn's heat wave that had compounded a severe drought.

In fact, a few snow showers had been forecast for this area but the precipitation consisted of brief rain showers with possibly more before the mercury drops to a frost level around 34 degrees tonight.

Edwin Copeland, U. S. weather observer at Millport, reported a low this morning of 33 but no frost, and he said no snow had been observed.

City householders reported snow flakes mixed with the early rain and hail later.

The downtown had 40 at 6 a. m. with today's top not expected to exceed the mid-50's. To night's low will be 34 to 38.

The Highway Patrol reported snow in Lake and Geauga Counties but said it melted about as fast as it hit the ground.

A U. S. Weather Bureau forecaster at Cleveland Hopkins Airport said there were unofficial reports of soft hail in several Cleveland suburbs but that he had received no reports of snow.

The forecaster said a pea-sized hail covered the ground briefly in Parma and some other suburbs.

It will take more than showers to ease the Tri-State District's extremely dry conditions and Hurricane Ginny apparently will not be of any help as it was heading for the open sea after brushing past eastern Long Island with gale - force winds.

Newell Man's Slayer Given Prison Term

A McDonald (Pa.) man convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the 1961 slaying of his business partner from Hancock County has been sentenced to prison.

Chester Hoffman, 55, received a 18-year term Monday in Washington County Circuit Court.

Hoffman had pleaded guilty to the murder of Leonard O. Bywaters, 51, of Newell in the Hoffman home June 16, 1961.

The victim was shot six times with a .32-caliber automatic.

The shooting came during a quarrel by Hoffman and Bywaters over a sand and gravel business that they operated in Hancock County.

They were partners in the Arroyo Sand and Gravel Co. of Route 66 near Newell.

Although Hoffman pleaded guilty to murder, the court, after hearing testimony, fixed the degree of guilt at voluntary manslaughter.

The sentencing of Hoffman had been delayed several times, apparently due to his health. He was prosecuted in Washington County.

GM Reports Record Sales And Earnings
Dazzling Profits, Output Continued By U.S. Carmakers

NEW YORK (AP)—Dazzling profit figures are sprouting from the dizzy production and sales pact set by Detroit's automakers.

They gave promise of warming the hearts—and palms—of stockholders, including the more than one million of the General Motors Corp.

Of the "Big Three" automakers, only Ford Motor Co. remained today to be heard from following GM's report of all-time high earnings and dollar sales in the nine months ended Sept. 30.

Chrysler Corp. last week unfolded another financial chapter in its spectacular. Directors promptly voted a 2-for-1 stock split, the second in less than a year, and in effect doubled the dividend.

GM's pattern of rewarding its shareholders — whether by more liberal dividend treatment or possibly a stock split—will be decided when directors meet Monday in New York.

In the first nine months, GM cleared $1,086,000,000, or $3.79 a common stock share, on unprecedented sales of $11,681,000,000.

The results suggested strongly that GM was on the way to shattering 1962's records for a full year of $1,459,000,000 in earnings and $14,640,000,000 in sales, levels unequaled by any manufacturing corporation.

The nine-month figures compared with 1962 million, or $3.36 a share, cleared in the comparable 1962 period, on sales of $10,451,000,000.

Picket Line Remains In Bid For Road Work

Efforts by residents of Township Line Road 316 near Laughlins Corners to persuade officials to improve their road continued Monday night with picketing at a barricade erected by housewives in the forenoon.

Township road supervisors warned the women they are subject to fines of $25 for blocking the road, but said they will allow display of signs asking for improvements and oil to quell the dust.

A "tempest in a rural teapot" developed when Clyde Saver, Fred Martin and Ed Wilkinson, road supervisors, inspected the barricade Monday night. Some of the signs on the barricade were removed but the residents continued to parade in the area this morning.

6 Primaries Seen Likely Vote Tests For Goldwater

WASHINGTON (AP)—A half-dozen primaries in strategic states are shaping up as likely testing grounds if Sen. Barry Goldwater bids actively for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination.

Goldwater's strategists say that because their man is not an announced candidate they have made no decision on which, if any, of the preferential contests he will enter.

Nevertheless, pressures are building among local supporters to get the Arizona senator on the ballot in several states. They say this would demonstrate that his support for the nomination comes from all sections of the United States.

Goldwater himself has made it clear that if he runs, he will 21.

8 Get Notices On Tax Cases
Hearings Set Friday On City Citations

Eight men charged with violation of the city income tax ordinance have been served with summonses ordering them to appear in Municipal Court Friday morning for hearings.

The notices were served by Bailiff Wilbert P. Taylor after the charges were filed by D. G. Wilkinson, income tax commissioner.

Four are accused of two violations — failure to file a final report on 1962 earnings and failure to furnish an estimate of 1963 income. Two more are accused of failure to file the 1963 estimates and two are charged with not filing final returns on 1962 income.

The defendants are: John G. Silva, 441 1st Ave.; Ernest Williams, 1053 Maple St.; Virgil E. Smith, 1161 Har-ker Ave.; John F. Cunningham, 313 Market St.; Harry F. Nesselrode, 705 Orchard Grove Ave.; Milton P. Baker, 938 Lisbon St.; Everett Athey, 711 E. 4th St., and Richard A. Bosworth, 805 Alton St.

Silva, Williams, Cunningham and Baker are accused of two violations. Smith and Nesselrode are charged with failure to file 1963 estimates. Athey and Bosworth are accused of failure to file a 1962 final return.

Since the summons were served, Nesselrode has filed his 1963 estimate, Wilkinson said.

The double charges against Silva were dismissed Monday by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on payment of costs.

Taylor said he was unable to serve summonses on six other defendants.

Next Space Effort Project Gemini Work Launched

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A 90-foot-tall Titan 2 rocket, split into two stages, rolled out to launch complex No. 19 on special shock - resistant wheeled carriers. Workmen gingerly started to unload the valuable cargo.

Thus, an Air Force-contractor team began Monday the complex task of preparing the rocket for the first launching in the United States' next man - in-space effort, Project Gemini.

The initial flight will attempt to hoist a mockup model of the two-man Gemini spacecraft into orbit. It will tell engineers many things: the structural compatibility of the spacecraft and booster; temperatures and pressures which will affect the combination; performance of the guidance system, and Titan 2's ability to place a payload into a precise orbit.

The flight will be one of two, perhaps three, unmanned launchings designed to "man-rate" the Titan 2 for astronaut orbital and space rendezvous missions. The first astronaut flight is scheduled late next year.

The intercontinental-range Titan 2 has performed well in military weapon tests—but it is far from ready for manned flight. The major problem is a vibration which could blur the astronauts' instrument panel during the critical launching phase.

The vibration trouble is one reason the Gemini program is a year behind schedule. It has been called the "pogo effect" because it vibrates the length of the missile like a boy hopping up and down on a pogo stick.

The chief of the Air Force Gemini launch division, Lt. Col. John G. Albert, told newsmen about the difficulty.

"It occurs between 90 and 140 seconds after launching and vibrates at 11 cycles per second," he said. "We haven't pinpointed the precise cause. There are several things under study."

The turbopump is believed to be the most likely villain and its impeller is being redesigned.

Albert noted the Titan 2 has been modified considerably for the Gemini flights and as a result it may not have the vibration problem.

"That doesn't mean we're not concerned," he said. "It might turn out to be worse."

Space officials are making two approaches to the trouble: surgically cleaning the second stage engine to prevent clogging of fuel orifices and redesigning the engine with more orifices.

Township Slates Listed St. Clair And Liverpool Trustees Facing Contests

Trustee candidates in St. Clair and Liverpool Townships face contests in next Tuesday's balloting, and similar races will occur in some of the other of 18 townships of Columbiana County, with a couple also settling bids for the one clerk post in each.

The balloting in St. Clair Township will include a four-way contest for one township trustee post and a two-way race for the clerk position.

Fred Hopper, trustee, and Neil McIntosh, veteran clerk, are not seeking re-election.

Candidates for the trustee post are Robert J. Cole of Glenmoor, milk tester for a dairy's co-operative; David Dray of St. Clair Ave. Ext., employee of the Pusateri Excavating Co.; Robert L. Frontz of Glenmoor, carpenter at the Crucible Steel Co., and Frank Mitcheson of Calcutta, electrician.

Candidates for the clerk position are Mrs. Patricia McIntosh Sloan of Calcutta, daughter of the incumbent, and Wilson Smith of Birch Rd., co-operator of the Smith Farm Supply of Route 30.

Motorcycle's Rider Dies Of Crash Injury
Carl J. Harris, 30, Victim Of Mishap With Station Car

A Newell area man was injured fatally Monday afternoon at 5 when the motorcycle on which he was a passenger crashed into the side of a station wagon on Washington St. in Newell.

Carl J. Harris, 30, of Glendale suffered a fractured skull and died at 9 last night in City Hospital.

Hancock County sheriff's deputies said the victim was riding a 1950 model Harley-Davidson motorcycle operated by Andrew Rowand, 30, of Newell R. D.

The motorcycle, traveling south on Route 66, the community's main street, crashed into the front side of a station wagon operated by Guy Wells, 42, of Chester, R. D. 1.

Deputies said Wells was emerging from 10th St. onto Washington St. Traffic was heavy with home-bound patrons of the races at Waterford Park, and a car in the north-bound lane had halted to allow Wells to proceed into the line of traffic flowing north, deputies said.

The motorcycle struck the side of the station wagon near the front wheel.

Deputies said Mr. Harris was thrown over 72 feet and the path of his flight across the tops of two cars halted in the north-bound lane of Route 66.

Rowand, who had driven the motorcycle here from California recently and had intended to return there Monday night, suffered a laceration of the right leg and was in "fair" condition today in the hospital.

Unhurt in the crash were Wells, and four passengers in his 1955 model station wagon—his wife and three young children.

Deadline's Thursday To Obtain Early Ballot

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the Columbiana County Election Board, issued a reminder today that Thursday at 4 p.m. is the deadline for issuance of civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots for the Nov. 5 general election.

About 240 "early" ballots for all types have been issued, including those granted under the "soldier voting law" for service personnel, their spouses and civilians residing temporarily outside the U.S.

The civilian ballots must be back in the board's hands by noon Friday. The so-called "soldier ballots" may be issued until noon Saturday and may be returned as late as noon on Election Day.

Investigation Pushed In Youth's Wounding

LISBON — After taking testimony from a series of witnesses Monday night at the County Jail, Sheriff Russell J. VanFos-sen said today he still is investigating the wounding of a 17 - year - old West Township youth by shotgun pellets early Sunday morning.

James Lee Sanor allegedly was hit by the pellets while near the home of Ernest Morrison, northeast of East Rochester. The sheriff said Morrison continues to maintain that he did not fire the shot.

Sanor and three youthful companions told the sheriff they scraped on the windows and the sides of the Morrison home in a Halloween prank early Sunday. Driving by the home later, they heard a shot and Sanor shouted that he had been wounded, they said.

Tax Facts

Income tax funds have provided $24,500 in the last two years for street improvements and maintenance. The total includes $18,000 allocated as the city's share of low cost street surfacing and $6,500 for seal coating and oiling.

Republican Asks Facts On Beauty
Whisked Out Of U.S. After Boast Of Capital Frolics

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Republican congressman has asked the administration to reveal the inside story of a German beauty who was whisked out of the country after reportedly boasting of amorous frolics with Washington figures.

"Members of Congress and the public are entitled to know whether there was any element of security violation concerned in this speedy and hitherto unpublicized deportation," Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, told the House Monday.

The West German defense minister identified the status-quo brunette as Mrs. Elly Rometsch, 27. He said she and her sergeant husband had been called home last August on the basis of intelligence reports about her behavior.

The defense minister said the woman had no contacts with persons from the Soviet bloc and "the whole thing seems harmless."

Sgt. Rometsch had been assigned to the West German military mission in Washington.

Officials here said the kiss-and-tell frau was sent packing after a quiet investigation by the FBI but that she was not deported.

Gross linked Mrs. Rometsch's case with the Senate investigation of the business affairs of Robert G. Baker, who resigned as Senate Democratic secretary after allegations he used influence to help his business interests.

Among the unconfirmed stories (Turn to BEAUTY, Page 5)

Senators Open Probe Of Baker
Pressure Tactics Hinted By Ex-Democratic Aide

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators open their investigation today of Robert G. Baker, the page boy they called "Bobby" who quickly grew up to wealth and power as secretary of the Senate's Democratic majority.

The first witnesses in the Rules Committee's closed hearing was to be Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., who has conducted a one-man probe of the affairs of Baker, 35, who resigned his Senate job under fire Oct. 7.

A specific point under the committee's scrutiny is an allegation that Baker used pressure tactics to induce big defense contractors to install at their plants vending machines of various kinds leased from a firm in which he had a financial stake. Baker has denied any pressure tactics.

The case has been followed by disclosure that Baker was a moving spirit in the organization of an exclusive Capitol Hill group known as the Quorum Club, Inc., at a hotel across the street from the Senate Office Building. Its membership included Congress members and lobbyists.

He also has been named as the unsalaried secretary of a travel agency which numbered Congress members and lobbyists among its clients.

Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, asked Monday that the investigation also look into the affairs of Mrs. Elly Rometsch, attractive German brunette who was shipped home after allegedly bragging of amorous adventures with Washington figures.

One of the unconfirmed rumors was some members of Baker's circle were on good terms with Mrs. Rometsch, 27, and that she was often seen at the Quorum Club.

Administration Wins
House Committee Snubs Tough Rights Measure

Starts Work On 'Milder' Legislation
Kennedy To Press For Quick Okay Of Compromise Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration today won its fight to kill a tough civil rights bill in the House Judiciary Committee and pressed for quick approval of a compromise measure.

Meeting shortly after President Kennedy had conferred with House leaders of both parties, the committee rejected by a 19-15 vote a bill the administration contended was too stiff to get through Congress.

It then began consideration of a milder, but still wide-ranging bill that is stronger in respects than the original administration proposal. The bill was worked out by the administration during the last few days in close collaboration with key House Republicans.

Although some supporters of the defeated bill, which was drafted by a judiciary subcommittee claimed it could have been passed, others conceded the new proposals will have a better chance of passage.

At the White House meeting, Kennedy was reported to have told Democratic and Republican House leaders he expected them to work together to move the compromise bill smoothly through the House.

It was not immediately clear whether the committee would reach a vote today on the new package. When the meeting began many members had not even seen it.

For the past week, Kennedy and his aides have been working with House leaders and Judiciary Committee members in an effort to develop a compromise bill acceptable to both parties. The administration has feared that the bill approved by the subcommittee could not win passage.

The President presented the new proposals, worked out with key House Republicans, to committee Democrats at the White House Monday.

He urged they be accepted in place of the more drastic measure put together in a judiciary subcommittee by a Northern liberal group of both parties.

The compromise is said to include provision for creation of (Turn to RIGHTS, Page 5)

Jaycees Discuss Future Projects

Future projects, including working at the Blue Flame Festival of the Ohio Valley Gas Co. tonight and Wednesday nights, were reviewed at a meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night at the Travelers Hotel.

The Jaycees have been selling tickets for the event and will man ticket booths tonight and Wednesday night at 7:45 at Westgate School. Robert Conroy is chairman.

Paul McDole was inducted as a new member. Guests included Gary White and Paul Montgomery.

Robert Brooks, president, said a public Halloween dance will be held Thursday night at the DAV building on Market St. It is open to the general public. The dance is being sponsored to help combat any possible vandalism in the area, Brooks said.

Jerry Wines, chairman, said a meeting has been held with the East Liverpool Merchants Association in conjunction with the annual Christmas parade Friday, Nov. 29, through the downtown district. Area bands have been contacted for participation, along with various other organizations. Paul Blevins is in charge of the Jaycee float which will appear in the parade.

An amendment to the constitution and bylaws was approved to increase the membership dues by a dollar a year. This was done to compensate for the dollar increase in state dues for each member, it was explained.

A voter information booth on the city income tax will be erected tonight at the Thorefare parking lot in East End. Information on the pros and cons of the issue will be offered.

The booth will be located at the Moore's parking lot Thursday night and Saturday.

The local Jaycees will host the District 20 meeting Nov. 12 at the Vincent House on Route 30 near Chester.

They will tour the Crucible Steel Co. plant at Midland Nov. 13 at 6:30 p. m. The members are to meet at the hotel at 6 to travel to Midland in a caravan. Those who cannot go in the group are to meet at the 10th St. gate, according to Larry Walton.

Dale Kidd reported on the September All - State meeting. The November All - State will be Nov. 9-10 at Canton.

The Jaycee Clowns will participate in a parade Saturday morning at Salem, it was announced.

Dick Chadwick, vice president, conducted business. He outlined Issue 1 will appear on the ballot Nov. 5 and urged the support of the membership. Merrill Hall, GOP mayoralty candidate, spoke briefly at the beginning of the meeting.

Jud English was guest speaker. He attacked the complacency of too many city residents and organizations in planning and growth. "East Liverpool is blessed with more opportunity than any place I have been," he said.

English reviewed the groups of tourists who visited the city the past summer and explained how many wanted to return again. He praised the Jaycees for projects that bring people to the area, such as the boat regatta.

"Tourism could be the largest industry in the area," he said.

Council Asks PUCO Action At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — A proposed 5 per cent gas rate boost for village consumers was turned down Monday night by Council, which authorized a resolution to be sent to the Ohio Public Utilities Commission for a study of the gas rate structure.

Paul Temple of the East Ohio Gas Co. presented the utility's plan for a 5 per cent rate boost over a four - year period. The firm originally had asked for a 11.9 per cent hike.

Councilman Donald Lewis made the motion to ask for the PUCO study and Councilwoman Mrs. Kate Weaver seconded the motion, which passed unanimously.

Atty. Dwain Yeagley of Salem, village solicitor, was instructed to send to the PUCO at Columbus the resolution which was ordered prepared a number of weeks ago.

Council also authorized the advertising of bids for purchase of a new police cruiser and for rental of a cruiser.

Only one bid — from the Hart Motor Co. of Salineville, presently leasing a cruiser to the village — was received at the last session of Council.

Councilman Gillis Earl made the motion to advertise for a new vehicle and also for leasing of a vehicle in order to compare the costs. Bids tentatively slated to be in by Nov. 25.

Council directed the installation of a new police radio in the present cruiser to meet requirements of the changed police communications systems over the nation starting Friday. The radio will have to be removed when a new cruiser is obtained, but continued use of the present radio would be illegal, Council was told.

Purchase of a gun holster for Police Chief Roy Lewis was authorized.

In order to provide extra help for Chief Lewis during the Halloween season, Council authorized Robert Wilson, deputy marshal, to work this week at night.

Chief Lewis reported two arrests made in October, two accidents investigated, two warnings issued, ten ticket citations made, five domestic calls investigated, 21 dog complaints received and 1,363 miles patrolled.

Acting Mayor Orvel Tolson presided. The Rev. Allen Rose of the Methodist Church gave prayer.

Bolton Asks Kennedy Thought On Lobbyists

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has been asked by Rep. Oliver P. Bolton, R-Ohio, to state whether he condones solicitation of Washington lobbyists by cabinet and subcabinet officials.

In a statement Monday, Bolton accused the Kennedy administration of "lobbying the lobbyists" in behalf of political candidates. He cited as an example the disclosure that Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz had solicited campaign funds from Washington lobbyists in behalf of Sen. Harrison Williams, D-N.J.

In a news conference Monday, press officer Robert McCloskey said there was "some indication" that Vietnamese Communists were strengthening the Pathet Lao in the area of the Plaine des Jarres. But he said it is not clear if these actions mean the Communists will attack forces of the neutralist central government as they did last spring.

MOON LANDING TALKS: Chairman Clinton P. Anderson of the Senate Space Committee says the United States should be willing to discuss exchanging information with Russia on how to land a man on the moon.

In a statement Monday, the New Mexico Democrat said he did not regard remarks by Soviet Premier Khrushchev as rejecting President Kennedy's proposal for U.S.-Soviet cooperation on flights to the moon.

Anderson said he felt Khrushchev's statement was "a deferral of a manned lunar landing, and a willingness to find out how this nation intends to conduct its lunar expeditions."

Called National Disgrace

Washington Has Stadium But No Cultural Center

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

NATIONAL DISGRACE: It's a national disgrace that Washington has one of the nation's finest sports stadiums but no national cultural center, says Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn.

Testifying before a special Senate subcommittee on the arts Monday, Humphrey said:

"The Berlin Opera House makes anything we have in Washington look like a woodshed."

The Minnesota Democrat backed bills that would permit the federal government to take a more active part in development of the arts.

LAOS REDS: The State Department has warned that Communist forces in Laos have received considerable quantities of supplies and military hardware in recent weeks.

Rocking Chair's Got Me—$60,000

LISBON — President Kennedy uses a rocking chair to ease a back pain but a Columbus woman has filed suit for $60,000, claiming a rocker made by a Columbian County firm caused her nothing but pain when it threw her two years ago.

Gwynethel Wade of Columbus named the Ort Manufacturing Co. of Leetonia defendant, alleging the rocking chair she purchased from a Columbus furniture dealer was defective.

She says in her petition in Common Pleas Court she was rocking away on Oct. 30, 1961, when the leg base became detached and the chair turned over, throwing her to the floor.

She said she had to pay $450 in doctor's bills and lost $3 per day in wages because of inability to work.

Federal Grand Jury Seated At Wheeling

WHEELING — A Federal Grand Jury convened this morning in U. S. District Court and the office of District Atty. Robert Maxwell said about 20 cases will be presented.

Maxwell's office declined to divulge the nature of the cases it plans to present to the panel, which may be in session for two days.

Shoplifter Fined

LISBON — Mrs. Elice Dillinger, 19, of 213 S. Market St. was fined $25 and costs Monday by Mayor Dean Stockman for petty larceny. She pleaded guilty to stealing two rolls of cookie mix from the Hillyer IGA Foodliner, as charged by Willard L. Hillyer, manager.

County Board Acts

Southern Local Advised To Haul Disputed Pupils

LISBON — A ruling that the Southern Local School District was responsible for providing transportation to pupils of one of three families in a school bus trip dispute was made by the County Board of Education at a special meeting Monday night.

In a session marked at times with arguments, the board changed its position concerning two of the families and backed the Southern Local board, but said transportation should be provided in a third case.

The Southern Local board Oct. 14 had decided transportation of the pupils of the three families was not required under the Ohio code.

THE SOUTHERN Local board had adopted three resolutions, recommended by County Prosecutor William Brokaw, declaring bus travel was not necessary for the students of the Arthur Martin, Ancil Jones and Austin Malone families.

Atty. Donald Elliott of Rogers, county board member, said in his interpretation of the law, the Southern Local board is obligated to provide transportation. A section of the code was read concerning the case, and it was pointed out all the families reside over two miles from the school.

Members of the Southern Local board attending the meeting were Robert Skinner, Jack Stewart, Mrs. Betty Rhodes and Miss Ruth McNichol, along with Jack Baker, executive head, and Mrs. Bernice Hirst, clerk. Stewart explained the Southern Local action in regard to the Martin children, saying the bus would have to turn around at the Martin home and would endanger the children on the bus because the township road was not properly maintained. He added the trip would also "upset the bus schedule."

ALLEN CHAMBERLAIN of the county board said he had checked the road — "It's not too bad" — and he thought if the bus had a turnaround site, the children should be picked up until the weather made it impossible. He said the road was no worse than many in the district.

Several county board members said they talked with the bus driver on the trip, and they reported he said he believed he could get the bus down and back, but didn't want to do anything not authorized by the board.

The county board voted separately on the transportation of youngsters of each of the three families, and failed to support the Southern Local ruling in each case.

The Southern Local board then asked for a delay so it could continue a recessed meeting held Friday night. The members returned in a while and declared the bus trips would be impractical under Sec. 3327.02 under the Ohio Code.

THE COUNTY board then discussed each family again, and decided to affirm the Southern Local ruling in regard to the Ancil Jones case because the trip is over a private road.

Common Pleas Judge Raymond Buzzard earlier this year ruled the Jones family should be paid $1 a day for bringing its children out the lane to the road for the bus pickup.

The county board re-affirmed the Southern Local decision in the case of the Malone family after it was reported the children now walk to the bus, so the board is not permitted to pay for transportation. This is subject to a re-study if there is a change in the method of getting the children to the bus stop.

The county board did not change its ruling in the Martin family case, and directed the Southern Local board to send a bus down the road to get the children until the road becomes impassable, depending on the judgment of the bus driver.

BAKE QUESTIONED the county board's authority in telling the Southern Local district where they must send a bus. However, the county board referred to the section of the code related to its authority.

Baker declared, "I am pretty sick and tired of these transportation problems," and said he would like it to be publicly known he is looking for another position.

Mrs. Freeman Strabley, county board president, said she felt the dickering about getting children to school is "very bad," and said all measures should be taken to insure the youngsters get the same privileges as other students in the Southern Local District.

Stanton Band Booster Club To Give Pins

HAMMONDSVILLE — Plans were made to award pins to senior members of the band and chorus when Stanton Local Band Boosters met Monday night in the high school.

A committee, Mrs. LuEllen Paisley, Mrs. Alberta Seevers and Mrs. Dorothy Davis, was named to select the awards. The pins will be presented at the annual band and chorus Christmas concert Dec. 13 in the school.

Stanton Local will host the District 8 band conference Dec. 14, with the Boosters to serve lunch. Schools in District 8 will send several musicians each to the Stanton school and the musicians will perform as one band. Instructors will meet for a workshop.

The club will sell ballpark pens next month to raise funds for projects. It will also sponsor a bazaar and lunch after the Christmas concert.

There is $1,255.49 in the uniform fund, and $184 in the general fund, Mrs. Elaine Porter, president, presided. Next meeting is Nov. 25, according to Mrs. Betty Sayre, secretary. Members are to pay their dues by Friday.

Fallen Leaves Hauled By Wellsville's Crew

The bulk of fallen leaves are being cleaned from Wellsville streets today, according to Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasare.

He said the men are loading them into trucks to be hauled away and dumped.

The broom on the street sweeper is being rebristled today and it will be used to clean the streets after the leaves have been collected.

Residents have been unable to burn the leaves this year because of the dry weather.

Plans For 2 Meetings Listed For GOP Unit

LISBON — Plans for two future meetings were announced Monday when the Republican Advisory Committee met at the Wick Hotel.

The Western Townships GOP Club will meet tonight at 8 in the Homeworth Fire Hall with State Rep. Clarence Wetzel as speaker.

The Salineville Republican Club will sponsor a county GOP rally in the grade school auditorium Friday at 8 p. m. All area party members and candidates have been invited.

Atty. Charles Pike of Lisbon county chairman, presided. Next meeting will be Nov. 11 at the hotel.

Commissioners Meet

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners took no official action at their meeting Monday but consulted with a State Welfare Department representative and with several township trustees. Next meeting is Thursday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. station wagon was light but the motorcycle was demolished.

The victim and the operator of the motorcycle were rushed to City Hospital by an ambulance from the Arner Home for Funerals in Chester.

The accident remains under investigation by the office of Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny. It was the third traffic fatality in Hancock County this year, but the first investigated by the sheriff's office. The other two were in the Weirton city limits.

A resident of Glendale for 15 years, Mr. Harris was employed in the cold strip mill at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

He was a veteran of the Korean War and a member of the Glendale Church of the Nazarene.

Mr. Harris was born March 13, 1933, in Newville, W. Va., the son of Mrs. Angela Mae Gregory Harris of Corley, W. Va., and the late Carl J. Harris.

Besides his mother, he is survived by his widow, Mrs. Shirley Jean Harris; two sons, Delmar Lee Harris and James Edwin Harris, and two daughters, Brenda Ellen Harris and Sharon LaVern Harris, all at home; seven sisters, Mrs. Ruth Bragg of Glendale, Mrs. Alice Kniceley, Mrs. Mona LaVern Bright, Mrs. Becky Mae Bright, Miss Phyllis Kay Harris and Miss Loretta Sharon Harris, all of Corley, and Mrs. Patricia Ann Vanderworp of Detroit, and three brothers, William B. Services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the Arner Chester Chapel. Burial will be in Shadow Lawn Memory Gardens at Newell.

Friends may call tonight and Wednesday at the funeral home.

Canton Man Changes Plea In Burglary Try

LISBON — Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp Monday ordered a probation investigation for Joseph D. Woodson, 36, of Canton after Woodson changed his plea to guilty to an attempted burglary.

Woodson, along with Ronald E. Johnson, 23, of Canton, Robert Miller, 28, of Alliance and William N. Eddings, 35, of Pitts- burg were indicted by the September Grand Jury for attempted burglary of the U.S. Armory in Salem June 11.

They were surprised in the act by Salem police and sheriff's deputies alerted by Robert Bingham of Salem who was with the group but who had advised the Salem police of the burglary.

A petit jury yesterday deliberated a little over an hour before returning a guilty verdict against Eddings.

Judge Sharp deferred sentencing to allow Eddings' counsel time to file for new trial. The trial began Wednesday was recessed Friday and resumed Monday.

Films On New Schools Shown Hancock PTA

Films of floor plans of new schools under construction in the Hancock County system were screened by Charles McKinney, assistant county superintendent, at a meeting of the County PTA Council Monday night in the Pughtown school.

In an explanation of interior design, McKinney pointed out the schools will be equipped with folding doors allowing a 40-pupil room to be converted to two 20-pupil rooms for convenience.

He used an overhead projector to screen the films. Fifty-eight attended. McKinney was introduced by Mrs. John Stankiewicz.

Harry Wagaman, audio-visual education director, said he still is seeking volunteers for aiding in the programs using overhead projectors in the classroom.

Mrs. Stankiewicz announced that American Education Week will be observed in the county Nov. 10-16. A record about American education by Mrs. Clifford Jenkins, national PTA congress president, was played. It is available to local PTA units by contacting Mrs. Charles Wagner, Council president.

Oak Glen High School will observe "College Day" Dec. 11 when seniors may consult with representatives of institutions of higher learning from West Virginia and Ohio. They will be available for conferences during school hours and also in the evening.

A Lesson From Pittsburgh

Things have begun popping as the result of raids by Pennsylvania state police on vice and racket centers in Pittsburgh and other Allegheny County communities.

The state attorney general's office at Harrisburg is weighing the possibility of a grand jury investigation and a group of aroused citizens in Pittsburgh has called for a thorough study of charges of corruption in the county police bureau.

This situation is not new and Pittsburgh is not the first city to have its eyes opened by raids on a state level. Too often it has been necessary to call on "outside" law enforcement agencies to crack down when enforcement agencies on "local" levels for one reason or another ignored illegal practices which had been prevailing for some time.

It's a sad state of affairs. The law should be enforced at the local level, except in those cases where things have gotten out of hand to the degree where state or federal intervention is demanded.

Conditions such as those which have stirred an uproar in Pittsburgh and Allegheny County cannot help but cast a reflection on those who have failed to do their duty in the interest of enforcement. Thoughts of corruption and possible payoffs spring up immediately in the average person's mind when he learns of such laxity. It's a sickening, but most logical conclusion under the circumstances.

The Pittsburgh cleanup should serve as another lesson—and warning—to law enforcement agencies in other areas who have found it more convenient to sit back and wink at violations rather than do something about them.

One Night Only

We hope Safety-Service Director Owen's appeal that Halloween "trick-or-treat" be confined to Thursday night doesn't fall on deaf ears.

It's a sensible and proper approach to the festive occasion. No one wants to deprive the youngsters of their fun, but one night of making the rounds should be sufficient. When the kids call three or four nights in a row it takes the pleasure out of the "guessing game" for the house-holders, even though the Halloweeners may reap a greater reward so far as "treats" are concerned.

Parents should advise their children to knock on doors Thursday night only. Everybody will be the happier, including the witches on broomsticks who look down on the festivities with piercing eyes and cackling comments.

The Record Has Been Good

Despite agitation to the contrary in many parts of the state, we do not believe night football games should be banned in general unless there is some good reason for banning them.

We are proud to say East Liverpool has no such reason. The Weirton - East Liverpool game Friday night serves as another strong talking point that the night football situation is well in hand here.

If ever there was a time when tempers might have gotten out of control, it was Friday night, the crowd being what it was, the rivalry being what it was and the game being as close as it was.

But once more to the credit of both adults and teen-agers alike from East Liverpool, Weirton and surrounding communities those undesirable incidents that have plagued many other areas did not occur.

It is our sincere hope that the few teen-agers in and out of high school who may be tempted to thoughtless behavior will not deprive the many of the entertainment and good, clean fun of a night high school football game.

And the record over the years here shows that the possibility of such thoughtless behavior is only a possibility and not likely to become a reality.

They're The Tops!

The Heathertones Quartet can sing "We're Sitting On Top Of The World" today with added meaning.

For that's just where they are sitting after being ranked first in competition with 42 other quartets during the international song fest at Oakland, Calif., over the weekend.

The Heathertones are affiliated with the local Sweet Adelines chapter. And while none of the singers lives in East Liverpool proper they have become so widely known here and in the immediate area that we're most happy to count them as our very own.

Their achievement is a remarkable one in the field of quartet singing and speaks well for the efforts of the Sweet Adelines in promoting the cause of harmony.

Congratulations to the Heathertones and to all who have had a part in their success!

closure that he seemed to have an extraordinary number of outside financial interests.

His duties included a wide variety of personal and business favors for Senate Democrats. In addition to his various outside business interests he had a law practice.

What started the disclosures about him was a $300,000 civil damage suit filed against him by the Capitol Vending Co. which charged he had accepted commissions of $5,600 to put its machines in plants working for the government and then had ended the deal when Capitol refused to sell out to another vending company in which Baker is alleged to have held stock.

The Jordan committee's hearings on Baker's financial activities were to be held behind closed doors.

Mrs. Neuberger and Case told Jordan that if their bill on financial disclosures by members had been law Congress would not have had to be informed about Baker by outside sources.

While Congress has shown practically no interest over the years in proposals like those of Neuberger and Case, it has been prompt to get indignant about wrongdoing in the executive branch and has had full-scale investigations.

Right after President Kennedy took office in 1961 he asked Congress to tighten and broaden the laws against conflict of interest as it applies to employees of the executive branch. The law was passed quickly.

But there's hardly a chance in a billion that Congress will do anything about itself.

That Man's Back In Town

An Invitation To Labor From Russia

By Victor Riesel

Three weeks ago, the mysterious Georgi Kornienko, minister counselor of the Soviet Embassy, was handed a decoded message from Moscow by one of his aides.

Within a few minutes he was on the long distance telephone, putting in calls to the leaders of some 20 American unions.

Kornienko was most gracious. He was authorized, said he, to invite a group of U.S. labor officials to Russia—all expenses paid. There was no limit on the union delegation. They could travel as they wished. The implication was that they could stay as long as they wanted.

Kornienko was talking for Chairman Khrushchev and another comrade known as Victor Grishin. The latter, though unknown in the United States, is the powerful chairman of the All Union Central Council of Trade Unions AUCCU of the USSR.

Kornienko telephoned those union leaders he believed would be most receptive in this new atmosphere of breadmaking coexistence. In his selection of "friendly" leaders, Kornienko was advised by a special labor unit inside the Soviet Embassy.

IT IS HEADED by a Michael Kudriashov, the embassy's authority on American labor. He has been here for a year and does get around so quietly that this is the first time he has been mentioned in the public prints or observed in any fashion.

Kornienko's telephone calls were plain-spoken. The Soviets now are eager to fraternize. They especially want contact with American labor leaders. The Russians are running an all Soviet national labor convention, scheduled to open this week. They want American labor to send a fraternal delegation.

They believe this is just the thing to prove there is a bond between Soviet and American working people.

Kornienko reported to his people back home that he had some favorable replies. Just who will go is not yet known. The Russians were especially interested in transport unions at this time. They want no slowdown or interference with the movement of wheat and other grains to the Soviet bloc.

FOR THE RUSSIANS this is the political mating season. Their industry is in such chaos; their own labor force is stirred by such resentment; their need for foodstuffs and factory equipment is so pressing—that they are once again reverting to the frontal international good fellowship of the Lend-Lease era.

This is proven by just one paragraph from a report by Victor Grishin on the coming 13th AUCCU convention.

"The Soviet trade unions," said Grishin, "are now uniting tens of millions of workers. . . . This fits in with the organization of the foremost and most closely united class of Soviet society — the working class. More than 20 million working people in cities and the countryside are engaged in the Communist labor drive alone."

"The convocation of the 13th Congress has important international significance. The AUCCU has invited delegations from many of the world's trade union organizations to the Congress."

"There is no doubt that the congress will further the cause of rallying the progressive forces of world trade unions."

Note the last sentence. This is the reason for Kornienko's assignment.

THE SOVIETS obviously want the help of the American labor leaders to soften up anti-Communist opposition in the U.S. So the all-expenses-paid invitations were delivered.

There was no regard for protocol. The Soviet embassy went over the head of the U.S. government. It bypassed the national AFL-CIO headquarters.

"The Russians operated inside the U.S. as though they were calling people inside Moscow for a cocktail party," said one labor leader who rejected two of Kornienko's bids.

"The American Embassy in Moscow would never be permitted to make such direct contacts with the so-called Russian unions."

This is merely the start. The Soviet controlled global labor organization, known as the World Federation of Trade Unions (WFTU), recently held a high command session under the chairmanship of its French chief Louis Saillant. It told its section leaders to start wooing and infiltrating labor in the free lands.

This was not merely shower room pep talk. I have a report of that session before me. The WFTU gave its regional activists "more precise tasks and responsibilities, with the aim of producing more extensive, more coherent activities."

This means they got specific assignments for specific infiltration of specific unions.

Kornienko's invitations were the beginning. It will be fascinating to see who accepted.

The Moon And Sixpence

By David Lawrence

High Cost Jeopardizes Lunar Project

Dollars and sense — with a capital S in that third word — applies as a slogan of national policy in the Soviet Union, too. For it's the principal reason why Premier Khrushchev has called off the race to the moon. The Russians simply haven't got the money for the contest and, if the Americans want to go broke on such an adventure, Moscow wishes them "success."

It should have been no surprise to official Washington to read that the Russians have taken themselves out of the moon race. The State Department had more than an inkling of it some time ago. In fact, that's why President Kennedy politely proposed a joint effort to go to the moon, knowing full well that it would publicize American willingness to cooperate with the Soviets and would furnish a convenient setting for either side to wiggle out of or slow down the moon race.

Intelligence sources available to our European allies, plus information gathered by diplomat-observers, several weeks ago prompted the conclusion that against a serious dilemma in his spending policies.

He doesn't have an opposition political party, nor does he have the advice of any constructive critics, such as President Kennedy has in Sen. Harry Byrd, D-Va., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee.

BUT THE SOVIET chieftain has been struggling for several months now with an economic problem that no censorship or technique of managed news has been able to hide from the outside world. As for internal political turbulence — due to the economic distress of the Soviet people — the danger always is that some element in the Army may suddenly capitalize on the discontent and upset the men in the Kremlin. So caution and quick changes to satisfy public sentiment became urgent.

The basic ingredients of depression in Russia are easy to recognize. The agricultural situation is bad. It was led to an ignominious maneuver — the decision to purchase $250 million worth of wheat from the United States. Despite the fact that for the last eight years Khrushchev has gambled on the development of "virgin lands" — an effort which cost an enormous amount of money — the areas have turned out to be dust bowls. Waste and inefficiency in the farming system and, indeed, in the central planning has been revealed.

The Russian people have at times been skeptical whether communism is, after all, as efficient as it has been portrayed to them. They are beginning to get the answer.

Premier Khrushchev, in his desperation, has decided to try out new projects in fertilizer production and irrigation, thus bowing to the agricultural experts who wanted him to do this before. More than $12 billion now have been allocated to this scheme alone, as compared with an annual appropriation heretofore of $5.5 billion a year for the whole agricultural program.

BUT $12 BILLION is big money even in the Soviet Union, and the expenditure comes at a time when a huge waste of funds in thousands of industrial projects has been noted.

It's a way of taking care of unemployment but, as happened in the 1930s in this country, "made work" doesn't last forever.

The progress in the Russian industrial projects has been very slow. While more and more persons have been given jobs, the expected contribution of the industrial projects to the Russian economy as a whole has not been realized. Very few projects have been completed.

So Mr. Khrushchev now has had to apply priorities and suspend work on some projects while accelerating others. The result has been chaos in economic planning, as the work on electric - power stations and chemical plants, for instance, has been held in abeyance.

British experts who have studied at first hand the facts about Russia's economic problems say that, in the face of the crisis in agriculture as well as in the plans for industrial projects, Premier Khrushchev has no choice but to cut down arms spending.

All this points up to a budget of excessive spending by the Soviet government and, of course, without providing any money to go to the moon. Seven days ago in the issue of "U.S. News & World Report" there appeared a dispatch from London which said: "Soviet officials are hinting that they would like to obtain a U.S. agreement to call off the moon race altogether, rather than face the prohibitive cost of trying to win it."

CERTAINLY there isn't money enough, either, for a big foreign aid program now by the Soviets. They are beginning to curtail it. Dangerous pressures are building up within the Soviet Union which are compelling some major changes to be made in spending policy.

Maybe the idea of going to the moon has some scientific value, but it will be noted that Chairman Fulbright of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, in discussing the moon project in a speech the other day, significantly used the word priorities in respect to American policy.

That's a graceful way of saying that the objectives remain good but that there are other more pressing needs for $5 billion a year supplied, respectively, by the taxpayers in the United States and by the overburdened peasants in the Soviet Union than just to find out whether there is any life on the moon.

It's a case of sense finally emerging at the top, whether it be in spending dollars or rubles.

First things come first, and a trip to the moon isn't in the cards for either country for many years in the future.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

An open letter to the residents of East Liverpool:

Once again this November we will be faced with the responsibility of determining our leaders and expressing our opinions on certain important issues. Yes, we citizens who demand the benefits of our democracy often find ourselves shying away from our responsibilities. I'm speaking of our right to vote and the responsibility of voting intelligently.

We of the East Liverpool Jaycees are quite willing to accept our responsibilities in these matters.

It is for this reason that we would like to invite all aspiring candidates for election and the general public to air their views publicly this Tuesday from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Thoro-fare parking lot in the East End — Thursday evening from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the former Moore Furniture parking lot — and again Saturday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Moore parking lot.

We will furnish a microphone and other necessary equipment to inform voters on all issues. Yes, the controversial city income tax will be discussed. If you are honest with yourself, I'm sure you will admit that you do have, and are entitled to, an intelligent opinion. If you want to know all sides on all issues, fulfill your responsibility to yourself and your city — stop down — listen — and sound off, too, if you wish. See both sides of the issues and only then decide for yourself.

We'll be looking forward to seeing you, a better informed voter.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:
My twelve years' experience as a member of the Board of Education proved conclusively to me that every possible effort was made to secure the highest type, best qualified teachers that were available. I'm certain Mr. Myers and the present board practices those same methods.

If parents would try to impress upon their children's minds that the important thing is for them to apply themselves, there would be less complaint about inefficient teachers. ## Deaths and Funerals

Retired Rail Engineer Dies

L. M. Beatty, 734 Main St., Wellsville, former locomotive engineer, died at 4:20 p.m. Monday at the Osteopathic Hospital, following a heart attack at home. He was 76.

Former engineer with the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. with 50 years service, he was born Dec. 4, 1886, in Mannington, W. Va., to Alphus Beatty and Diana Metz Beatty.

A 32nd Degree Mason, he was a member of the Masonic Lodge 45 and the Supreme Council of Tiberis Grotto of Steubenville, the Scottish Rite of Steubenville and Wellsville and Elks Lodge 1040 and the FOPA Lodge of Wellsville.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Mary Haugh Beatty at home; two sons, Leslie Beatty of Steubenville and Dr. Dudley Beatty of Canton; two sisters, Mrs. George Flanagan of McMechen, W. Va., and Miss Ruth Beatty of East Liverpool; a brother, Russell Beatty of Lisbon, and four grandchildren.

Services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 at the Haugh Funeral Home by the Rev. Arden Beck, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Wellsville. Burial will be in Springhill Cemetery, Wellsville.

Friends may call at the funeral home in Wellsville tonight and Wednesday afternoon and evening.

The Elks Lodge will conduct services Wednesday at 8 p.m.

George Bailey

George E. Bailey of Alliance, former East Liverpool resident, died Monday evening at Alliance City Hospital, following a brief illness. He was 65.

He was born in Fenton, England, to Mrs. Eliza Bailey and the late George Bailey, coming to America as a youngster. Formerly employed at the E. M. Knowles China Co. and Homer Laughlin China Co., he moved to Alliance about six years ago.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Eleanor Bailey at home and his mother of East Liverpool.

Services will be held Thursday afternoon at the Shares Funeral Home in Alliance with burial there.

Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday evening.

Russell F. Cehrs

Russell Flemming Cehrs, 57, of Lisbon R.D. 1 died at 6:15 a.m. today at his home after an illness of several years.

Born April 13, 1906, in Monroe County, to William Cehrs and Emma Hoppel Cehrs, he was a farmer and resided in the Lisbon area for 32 years.

He was married Oct. 29, 1927, to the former Ethel King and was a member of the N. Beaver St. Church of Christ of Lisbon.

Survivors include his widow at home; a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Winters of Lisbon; a son, Ralph Cehrs of Lisbon; four sisters, Mrs. Eunice Whealdon of East Liverpool, Mrs. Virna Whealdon of Wheeling, Mrs. Fern Anderson of Newell and Mrs. Vivian Tittman of Tucson, Ariz.; two brothers, Roy Cehrs of East Liverpool and Floyd Cehrs of Wooster and 10 grandchildren.

Services will be held Thursday at 1:30 p.m. at the Eells-Leggett Funeral Home in Lisbon by Glenn Logston, minister. Burial will be in Grove Hill Cemetery, Hanoverton.

Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Infant McGraw

Funeral services are pending for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William McGraw, 918 Morton St., who died at 4:20 a.m. today at City Hospital, where he was born at 3:42 a.m.

Treaty Reenacted

BARBOURVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A reenactment of the signing of the Cane Treaty is held each year at the Daniel Boone Festival in this southeast Kentucky city. The treaty provided free Cumberland River cane for the Indians in return for their friendship towards the pioneers.

canceled a hurricane watch on the New England coast and a flood warning for Long Island.

This morning radar found the center of the storm about 180 miles east of Nantucket. Ginny was moving northeastward at about 35 miles an hour, packing an estimated 95-mph punch at the center and flinging gale-force winds for 225 miles.

"The hurricane watch on the New England coast and eastern Long Island has been discontinued," the Weather Bureau said. "However, whole gale warnings are displayed elsewhere from eastern Long Island to Eastport, Maine."

Heavy rain over portions of eastern New England brought a measure of relief to an area plagued by drought and forest fires. Bans on burning were eased.

The welcome rain and reports of snow flurries in parts of Northeast Ohio promised some relief for weary fire-fighters after they spent another day fighting a series of brush fires.

Firemen battled four blazes for nearly six hours Monday.

The major fire was on the Pleasant Heights hillside off Grandview Ave. where firemen were called twice yesterday after the fire had been rekindled.

Firemen were called originally at 11:28 a.m. with three men from Central and one from Pleasant Heights fighting the flames for 83 minutes.

Because of repeated calls to the hillside since the weekend, firemen used a line which had been left in place.

While firemen were fighting the blaze, another brush fire was reported in Fisher Park at 12:12 p.m. and two men from the North Side station were sent to fight it. That battle required 90 minutes.

The department was called back to Grandview Ave. at 4:17 p.m. with one man from the Pleasant Heights station and two from Central requiring 2½ hours before the fire was subdued.

With the North Side truck back in service after the Fisher Park blaze, it was sent to Henry Ave. where only 28 minutes was needed to quell a brush and grass fire.

Despite the rain, firemen pointed out both local and state authorities still ban outside fires of any kind.

A crew from the State Forestry Division continued today battling a woods fire that has burned over several hundred acres off Route 7 just below Wellsville.

The fire, which started Saturday, is located in the Block House Hollow Area behind 25th St. Heights.

The state has a crew of 30 to 40 men on the scene. They are using bulldozers and tractors in an effort to halt the flames.

Several volunteers have aided in fighting the fire, authorities said. No area departments have been called as the area is too hilly for equipment to travel.

2 Autoists Unhurt In Clinton Collision

The Carnegie Barracks of the Pennsylvania State Police said the Rev. John L. Clark, 49, of 241 Pennsylvania Ave., and Chester Hughes, 32, of Clinton escaped injury in a collision of their cars on Route 30 half a mile west of Clinton Monday at 4:20 p.m.

Police said the Clark car struck Hughes' as the latter turned into his driveway. Damage was estimated at $150 to the pastor's car and $15 to the other.

a fair employment practices commission but without the enforcement powers contained in the subcommittee bill.

And it is reported to exempt retail stores from provisions to ban racial discrimination in public facilities related to interstate commerce.

Kennedy's original civil rights package did not include a fair employment commission but Negro civil rights leaders have urged Congress to adopt one.

The new proposals are based on intense negotiations between the administration and key House Republicans, and are designed to win broad bipartisan support. The administration fears the subcommittee bill could not command such support and would be doomed without it.

The committee meets today. It is due to vote on a motion to approve the subcommittee bill and defeat of the motion is essential to the administration plans.

Members who attended the White House meeting said the proposals embody all seven of the original administration provisions, but with at least two key sections weakened. They also include two controversial provisions from the subcommittee bill, but in diluted form.

They said the weakened administration proposals are those dealing with voting rights and racial discrimination in places of public accommodation. A provision for the appointment of temporary referees to register Negro voters was scrapped, and retail stores were exempted from the provision to bar racial discrimination in all public facilities related to interstate commerce.

The two sections added include the fair employment practices commission provision and another that would authorize intervention by the attorney general in civil rights suits brought by individuals.

The latter provision is intended as a substitute for one in the subcommittee bill empowering the attorney general to initiate court action in all cases of deprivation of rights. The substitute would permit him to join in civil rights suits after they have been filed.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Please suggest an efficient method of burning out old tree stumps.

A. Try impregnating the stump first with saltpeter. After boring a number of holes deep into the core of the stump, fill them with the saltpeter, then pour hot water into the holes and repeat this process on successive days until the crystals are completely dissolved. Finally set fire to the stump after it has had sufficient time to dry out thoroughly.

Q. How can I repair broken plastic eyeglass frames?

A. You can sometimes effect a good repair with acetone (procureable at your druggist). Place the broken pieces together and holding firmly, dip the end of a matchstick or cotton swab into the acetone and touch to the broken sections. Repeat until the acetone has melted the plastic around the broken areas. The pieces will fuse together and harden in about 30 minutes.

Q. How can I prevent the birds from feasting on large quantities of my grass seed after I have sowed it?

A. Try coloring your seed with bluing, that is, soaking it in a solution of bluing and water until well colored, before scattering it on the ground. The birds will refuse to eat it, and the coloring won't effect the fertility of the seed.

Q. How can I shine patent leather?

A. Use one - third water and two - thirds vinegar, or use petroleum jelly. After applying either, go over the entire surface with a clean, dry cloth.

Q. How can I prevent the corners of my bed sheets from tearing while hanging on the line when the wind is high?

A. By fastening the sheets on the line by all four corners.

'Bear' Facts Indicate That Trouble's 'Bruin'

RATON, N. M. (AP) — The "bear" facts indicate that trouble is "bruin" in the Raton area.

The Raton City Commission has opened the city - owned Sugarite Canyon, northeast of Raton, to a 30-day bear season.

Bears have been coming into populated areas, apparently because of a lack of food and water, and the season was scheduled in an effort to trim the area's bear population.

Apple halves, sauerkraut and frankfurters can be cooked together in a large skillet. Leave the apples unpeeled but core them; brown them in a little skillet before adding the kraut and franks. Sprinkle the apples and kraut with a little brown sugar.

If you've opened a can of water chestnuts and have some left over, cover them with water in a jar, cover and refrigerate. You can keep them for several days at least if you change the water daily.

According to the findings of the American National Safety Council, thousands of fatal accidents every year are attributable to the failings of advancing age, some 14,000 persons over 65 having died from accidents in the home last year. Among the leading causes were falls, fires, and poisons.

As for Sgt. Rometsch, the London Daily Mirror quoted him in a dispatch from Bonn as saying he divorced his wife last month—a month after returning from Washington—and adding: "I had no idea of irregular conduct."

"Then on Aug. 14 my superior told me that my wife had been indulging in amorous adventures. Seven days later Ellen and I were on our way back to Germany. My wife denied everything."

The Mirror said Mrs. Rometsch is hiding out with her 5-year-old son in a hut on her parents' farm.

Boron® cleans carburetors

Sohio has put a special Carburetor Cleaner in Boron Gasoline that dissolves dirt deposits and washes them away!

To show you how dirty a carburetor can get, Sohio cut one in half. And the hard deposits that had formed inside around the throttle plate were scraped out.

Deposits like these are caused by tiny dirt particles in crankcase fumes from your own engine, in the exhaust of other cars around you in traffic, and in the atmosphere itself. Your air cleaner can't trap all these dirt particles. Some do get through to your carburetor and can build up deposits in the throttle plate section. They can block the air flow to your engine when you are idling. The result is stalling, rough idling and wasted gasoline.

If your carburetor is already dirty, the special Carburetor Cleaner in Boron Gasoline will clean it. Because the deposits are hard, the cleaning process may take time. But the end result will be a Boron Clean Carburetor! If your carburetor is already clean, regular use of Boron Gasoline will keep it clean!

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

History In Making Or Eavesdropping?

From the very beginning, I suppose, mankind has been burning up with curiosity about the private deliberations of the mighty. But we all had to live in the semi-darkness of a frustrated busybody until Walter Cronkite came along in 1939. B. C.

In 1939, the year of Socrates' death, Cronkite and his "You Are There" cameras poked through the corridors of Athenian justice, as the old philosopher's trial progressed; and Cronkite nabbed each of the major participants for a hushed interview on the CBS network.

("Thanks, Plato. Oh, er, Socrates! Would you step over here for a moment?")

SEVEN DAYS later, Cronkite and we, his fellow eavesdroppers, would hie on over to the Continental Congress for a word with Thomas Jefferson and the Adams boys. It was all very heady stuff, hobnobbing with the great that way and in a moment of historical crisis besides.

A week ago, Monday night, on ABC, we had a more up-to-date look-see into the most celebrated inner sanctum of our times, the President's digs, during the integration crisis at the University of Alabama last June.

"Crisis: Behind a Presidential Commitment," produced independently by Robert Drew, was a kind of "Son of You Are There," but with the central characters played not by E. G. Marshall or Barry Jones — who were the stars of "The Death of Socrates" — but by John F. Kennedy himself, his brother Robert, Gov. George Wallace, assorted federal officials and a platoon of small children.

THE 60-MINUTE documentary was greeted variously, but rather hotly, by the more serious television critics and editorial writers.

"A milestone in film journalism," said one reviewer, "an extraordinary personal experience."

Another called it "a melodramatic peep show... a prime example of governmental surrender to the ceaseless and often thoughtless demands of the entertainment world."

As a show, "Crisis" had its gripping moments, and I think immediately of the quiet briefing of the Negro students, Vivian Malone and James A. Hood, by a Justice Department lawyer, John Doar; or the nail-biting climax in the attorney general's office as the confrontation of Nicholas Katzenbach and Gov. Wallace on the Tuscaloosa campus flashed on the TV screen and Robert Kennedy muttered, in a voice edged with anxiety, "Is he getting to talk with the governor?"; or the tired, almost stricken closeups of the President's face during the earlier planning sessions.

"CRISIS," as a show, also had its vast shortcomings. Here and there, the staginess showed through; and plans which had been thrashed out at length elsewhere were committed to film in stammered half-sentences that conveyed no sense of truth or history or even deep thought.

Even the bird noises that sang out from the trees whenever we set foot on the grounds of the governor's mansion or the Tuscaloosa campus seemed manufactured with an Abercrombie & Fitch birdman's whistle.

We never knew what was manufactured and what was the real thing. Were the attorney general's children frolicking about in his office because their papa was baby-sitting that day or because he figured they were "good television"?

Were we getting a closer, deeper, understanding of a major event or, through stagecraft, being pushed away from it?

RIGHT AFTER the program, James Farmer of CORE said high-level documentaries of this sort tended to "make public figures indestructible," and I agree.

Our leaders can make great political capital out of a filmed report in which they figure as the heroes "and the other guys are the Indians" (to quote Farmer again).

I'm inclined to think the President agreed to this televised intrusion not because he is running a "government by public relations," as some viewers have charged, but because he has a tremendous respect for the role of electronics in the recording of history.

Most of us, I'm sure, share that respect. But I don't think a national leader should allow a camera to peer over his transom or through his keyhole during a moment of domestic crisis.

This first experiment in political snooping has stirred up enough stern criticism, though, to become, very likely, the last.

School Children's Tooth Decay Drops

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Tooth decay among Pittsburgh school children has been cut by about 66 per cent since the area's water was fluoridated, Allegheny County health authorities say.

Fluorine was added to water supplies in 1952. At that time, the average child had 4.53 permanent teeth affected by decay, compared to 1.50 teeth last year, according to Dr. Jerome Altman, county dental examiner.

A study was carried out on 35,009 children between the ages of 6 and 18.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Stretch To Minimize Middle Measurement

When fat encroaches, it's the waist that widens first. The middle muscles become interlarded with fat, and the spread is on.

It is we short, short-waisted gals who have the toughest time keeping slim amidships. The less span between the waist and the top of the hips, the more the added pounds bunch up. If this span is a skimpy two inches, or barely three, then just a couple of added pounds can spread the waist a half inch.

However, the length of the waist is not always determined by height. Some tall girls have short waists — and long legs. They do have an advantage over the short girl in that their calorie requirements are considerably higher, due to the added inches on height.

IF YOU ARE short-waisted, naturally you wish to heaven you were silken slim and supple. Stretching is the streamlining measure. To make a stretch twice as effective, add a side bend and h-o-l-d the contraction to the height of the stretch-extension.

Try it: Stand tall, pulled slim through the middle measurement. Have palm of right hand flat against the wall, elbow straight, so you are standing at arm's distance from the wall.

Action: Holding the upstretch through the middle, bend slowly and smoothly, trying to touch fingers of left hand to palm of hand on wall. H-o-l-d this stretch — bend to a slow count of six. Release slowly and repeat a couple of times. Reverse side and repeat.

Try another waistliner, this time adding stronger resistance. Position: Stand in doorway, with one side pressed against door frame, hands clasping frame above head and near shoulder level. Have feet together.

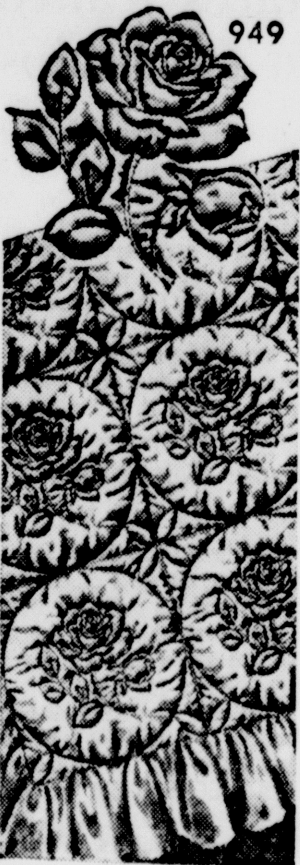

ACTION: Pull up snugly with lower abdominal muscles and keep hips tucked under. Resist with arm muscles, pull away from the wall, bending out of the waist area. Keep bending until you feel a strong pull along the boundary lines of the silhouette. Reverse the resistance, brace with arm muscles and exert force on the middle muscles as you slowly make contact with the wall again. This is rugged. Repeat three times only.

This tug of muscle is most effective. Curb the calories that have been crowding your requirements at the waist, and back this with a few stretches daily... and a half inch will disappear, then another.

Post Office Job Exam Scheduled

Postmaster Elmer J. Evans announced today an examination is slated for the position of custodial laborer for the new Wellsville Post Office.

This is an entirely new position. In the present Post Office, only a part-time custodian is required.

The examination will be given by the U. S. Civil Service Commission sometime after the first of the year. The starting salary is $1.88 per hour. Applicants must reside within the delivery area of the Wellsville Post Office.

Evans said applications will be accepted only from persons entitled to veterans' preference. All applicants must pass a written test. Anyone interested can obtain the required forms at the Post Office.

The applications, when completed, are to be mailed to the Executive Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Room 4240, Main Post Office, Cleveland — ZIP Code 44113.

The applications must be filed or postmarked on or before Dec. 30.

Ex-Ohioan Says 100 Foreigners In Czech Jails

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — A former Cleveland, Ohio, man says at least 100 foreigners are imprisoned in Czechoslovakia by Communist authorities.

Emery Sarmir, 55, and his wife were released recently from a prison in Czechoslovakia after serving two years in jail.

"My wife, Mary, and I were arrested on charges of espionage after we crossed the Czech border," Sarmir said in an interview. His wife is Czech-born.

Sarmir, who plans to return to the United States soon, said there were at least 50 foreigners held as political prisoners in the Hrusin prison in Prague where he served his term. He said another 50 foreigners were in the prison of Pardubice where his wife was held but no Americans were among those held.

The Sarmirs were sentenced to five years imprisonment two years ago and recently won amnesty and returned to Austria.

Sarmir said that on a trip to Czechoslovakia in 1960 they took a parcel into the country from a refugee who said it contained food for his parents. The Czechs claimed the parcel contained espionage material.

The United States was the first nation in the Western Hemisphere to become a republic.

Officer Files 4 Charges In Entry Series

Lt. William E. McDaniel filed four charges today in Municipal Court against three of the Beaver County men allegedly involved in a burglary ring that operated in Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania.

Acting in a case that "broke" Oct. 22 with the arrest of three men, Lt. McDaniel filed these charges:

Pedro Lopes Jr., 26, and William J. Sisco, 18, both of Industry R. D. 1, burglary of the Goodyear Service Store on Walnut St. Oct. 10; Sisco, burglary at the Adkins Furniture Store on Harvey Ave. last July 6, and Lovell Coleman, 23, of West Bridgewater, burglary of the same Klondyke store on Oct. 9.

Lt. McDaniel explained the charges will be used as deterrents against the men, all held in Beaver County Jail at Beaver.

He pointed out that further interrogation of the trio has cleared up both the July and early October entries at the Adkins Furniture Store.

Two television sets were taken in the July entry. Nothing was taken in the burglary earlier this month because the would-be intruders were frightened away by a police cruiser after breaking a window.

Lopes, Sisco and Alonzo Williams, 21, of Penn Ave., Midland, were taken into custody when the case broke a week ago. Subsequently, officers picked up Coleman on burglary charges and charged Charles McGee of Beaver Ave., Midland, with receiving and concealing stolen property.

State Hearings Slated For 2 Permit-Holders

The State Liquor Control Board at Columbus has scheduled hearings today and Wednesday for two district permit-holders.

The board was to conduct a hearing today for James R. Ross, operator of the 356 Bar & Grill at 356 Main St., Wellsville, on a charge of delinquent sales tax assessments.

A hearing is due Wednesday for Norman Reynolds, operator of the Cloverleaf on Route 30 near Lisbon, on a charge of after-hours sale and consumption of beverages.

Bella, Hassan Prepare For Peace Parley

BAMAKO, Mali (AP)—President Ahmed Ben Bella of Algeria and King Hassan II of Morocco arrived in Bamako today to bring their border war to the conference table.

Hassan, first to arrive, was smiling. Ben Bella arrived about a half hour later.

Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia, a prime mover in mediation efforts, was the last to arrive.

President Modibo Keita of Mali immediately invited the three leaders to lunch at his palace before the first session of the conference.

Western diplomats hoped the meeting would produce a ceasefire in the disputed border area between Morocco and Algeria. But they doubted any of the fundamental issues dividing the two North African neighbors would be resolved.

Ben Bella told his people by radio that he was optimistic for peace.

To strengthen the Moroccan position at the talks, Hassan's government announced its troops were eight miles from Tindouf, well in the territory claimed by Algeria.

The Moroccan King told his nation by radio Monday night he would press for adjustment of the frontier, most of which has never been formally marked out. It was doubtful Ben Bella would concede much, if anything, and he was certain to reject Morocco's claim to the ore-rich Tindouf area.

1964 Officers Elected For Bethesda Church

SUMMITVILLE — Frank Grubbs and Lawrence Hawkins were named elders and Ralph Cox, Fred Rogers and Mrs. Barbara Marra trustees during the annual congregational election Sunday at the Bethesda Presbyterian Church.

Others named are Mrs. Adella Treffinger, treasurer; Ralph Brown, superintendent; David Crawford, assistant superintendent; Ernest Phillips, Church School treasurer; Miss Bonnie Cox, school secretary; Miss Nancy Thompson, assistant secretary; Mrs. Dorothy Brown, children's superintendent, and Mrs. Evelyn Grubbs, assistant superintendent.

Glenmoor Group Sets 'Halloween Songfest'

The Geneva Youth Fellowship of the Glenmoor United Presbyterian Church will conduct a "Halloween Songfest" in the Glenmoor area tonight and Wednesday night.

Some 30 members of the group will dress in costumes and visit homes in the area, singing religious songs and passing out small favors.

The group, consisting mostly of 7th, 8th and 9th graders, hopes to visit some 80 homes in their two nights of "caroling."

Supervising the project are Mrs. Robert Lorah, Mrs. Martin Christen, Mrs. Thomas Phillips, Mrs. Wayne Bernard and Mrs. Sam Blackburn.

Post At Wellsville Plans For Dinner

A report on the Veterans Day banquet Nov. 9 was heard at a meeting of Wellsville American Legion Post 70 Monday night.

It will be at the post home at 6:30 p.m. Gold Star Mothers of Wellsville will be guests.

Twenty-five attended. Harry Excell, vice commander, conducted business. Jerome Gitschler reported on the Halloween dance held Saturday night.

Costume prizes were awarded Don Henthorn, Stella Tice and Evelyn Dickinson. Robert Beresford was awarded a special prize. Tom Leatherberry, Herman Liberatore and Francis House were the judges.

Excell said reservations from members for the New Year's Eve party will be received the first two weeks in November. The reservations left then will be offered guests.

George Hamilton's orchestra will play for a autumn harvest ball Saturday night.

Excell screened two Navy films. Harry Crawford and his committee served lunch. The post will meet again next Monday night at 8.

Mrs. Harold McCall, Rogers postmaster, and her husband are vacationing at New Orleans. Mrs. Hazel Pike, postal assistant, is serving at the post office.

Mr. and Mrs. Enell Smith of Mechanicstown and Mr. and Mrs. Orin Ray of Carrollton were Sunday guests of Mrs. Frankie Bell. Mrs. Grace Grimes of Columbiana also was a weekend guest of Mrs. Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wright visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry McDaniel of Negley Sunday.

Mrs. Gladys Green and Mrs. Helen Hoffman of Salem visited Sunday with Mrs. Jacqueline Eells.

Sunday guests of Mrs. Maine Hall were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wiggins, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gordon of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall of Columbiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Foy Wright spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Charley Carlisle of Lisbon.

Newell Odd Fellows Set Service Awards

Presentation of service awards will feature a joint coverdish dinner meeting of Clark Odd Fellows Lodge 447 and Newell Rebekah Lodge 74 tonight at 6 at the IOOF Hall.

Members of Clark Lodge with 25 years and more of service will be presented awards.

Bill Johnson, past noble grand, presided at the lodge meeting Monday night in the hall. A committee reported completion of installation of new counter tops and new flooring in the kitchen.

Strike In Rome

ROME (AP) — Administrative and technical employees in all Italian government offices started a two-day strike today for civil service reforms. They also want fringe benefit payments included in their over-all salary so they will get higher pensions.

Trio Trapped In Mine Show High Spirits

BROISTEDT, Germany (AP) — Three high-spirited men trapped in an iron ore mine since Thursday continued cracking jokes with their rescuers today as a rescue shaft passed the halfway mark.

"Don't send down too much stuff—we'll only have to bring it out of the shaft again," one of the miners quipped over a supply tube that has been bored down to them 259 feet below the surface.

Hot food, warm clothing and the sports sections of newspapers go down to the three via the six-inch tube.

If boring operations continue at the present rate of five feet per hour, the men could be rescued Wednesday. But Rudolf Stein, the mine director, warned that geological variations in the earth could slow the speed of the drilling.

After 46 hours of drilling, the rescue shaft had reached the halfway mark.

A more powerful drilling rig was put into action today on a second rescue shaft.

The three were trapped in an air pocket in a gallery when a nearby dam burst and flooded the mine. Eighty-six miners managed to escape, but 40 others are still unaccounted for and are believed to have drowned.

Masquerade Set For Wednesday By Fitness Club

A Halloween masquerade party will be held Wednesday night at 7 at the VFW Hall on Miner St. by the Women's Physical Club of East Liverpool.

Mrs. Marty Sanford, president, said one of the prizes will be a white doily, donated by Helen Cook.

Plans for the party were made at a meeting Monday night, with 15 attending for games and exercises.

The club has received a letter and picture from President John F. Kennedy for its work in physical fitness promotion. The picture will be displayed in the club rooms.

An invitation has been received for members to appear on WSTV-TV, Channel 9 in Steubenville Nov. 26 on a "Tell-All" program. Anyone wishing to participate is to contact Mrs. Sanford.

Plot To Kill Korea President Disclosed

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Twenty conspirators plotted to kill President-elect Chung Hee Park at the Seoul railroad station 11 days ago, high sources in the military junta said today.

Five of the plotters have been arrested, they reported.

The sources said the assassination plot was discovered and Park got off his train about a mile south of the station.

57 Register For Adult Courses In Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — A total of 57 were registered Monday for East Palestine High School's first adult education courses to begin in January.

Registration will also be held tonight from 7 to 8:30 for the Board of Education-sponsored courses. Fourteen signed for sewing, the largest, with 12 for typing and 11 for shorthand, officials said.

Search Continues For Fire-Starters

Firemen said today they still are searching for a man believed to have deliberately started a brush fire Saturday morning off Boring Ln.

Homer Cronin, assistant chief of the Liverpool Township West department, said firemen are continuing to press the hunt for the arsonist who also may have been responsible for a false alarm turned in Monday night.

The East department received a call at 9 p. m. about a fire on Campbell Rd. off Campground Rd.

Since it is in the LaCroft department's territory, the call was relayed there and a truck was sent to investigate but could find no trace of a fire.

The West department will hold a business meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the LaCroft station, he said.

"Like Eggs? They're Great Eating With Sausage," Says Farmer Bob Evans

The worried look on Sarge, the Bob Evans' boxer, doesn't mean the well-known Ohio farmer has switched to egg raising in a big way.

Farming and sausage making are still the main occupations of Bob Evans. But like most folks, he likes eggs just about any style. He admits a natural preference for them served with Bob Evans Farms Sausage.

Talk with Bob Evans and he will likely tell you, "Eggs are as American as a wake-up cup of coffee. And in Ohio, at least, I suspect that fresh country sausage has taken over as the number one combination with eggs—not only for breakfast—but for any main meal."

Freshness may be one reason, believes Bob. Both eggs and sausage must be fresh to be good. Bob Evans Farms Sausage is made fresh on the farm every day and rushed by refrigerated trucks right to stores. This wasn't possible in the old days.

Another reason is the way Bob Evans Farms Sausage is made with all the choice cuts of hams and tenderloins included. Every pound is made in the southern Ohio hills, either near the 820-acre Homestead farm on U. S. Route 35 north of Gallipolis, or on a second farm near Xenia.

Miss Diane Huff Marries In Pughtown Church Rites

The Fairview Presbyterian Church in Pughtown was the scene of the marriage of Miss Diane Huff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Huff of Park Meadows, New Cumberland, and Herbert Lee Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rogers of Shippingport, the evening of Oct. 19 at 7:30 o'clock.

The double-ring candlelight service was performed by the Rev. William H. Flurkey, minister, before an altar banked with palms, ferns, white mums and seven-branch candelabra. White satin bows marked the bridal aisle.

A half-hour recital was played by Mrs. William Flurkey, church organist, while Mrs. Erma Myers of Chester, sang "Oh Promise Me." "Whether Thou Goest" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, appeared in a floor-length gown of peau de soie, fashioned with a scalloped neckline and long, pointed sleeves. The fitted bodice was trimmed with re-embroidered Alencon lace, studded with sequins and seed pearls and the motif was carried out on the chapel train. Two crush roses accented the back of the bodice.

A double crown of Alencon lace, rhinestones and seed pearls held her bouffant elbow length veil of silk illusion in place.

All the familiar traditions were observed, including a sixpence in her shoe given to her by Miss Sara Thomas of Chester. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, centered with a white orchid, ivy and satin streamers.

Miss Donna Rogers of Shippingport, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a ruby peau satin dress styled with a bouffant skirt, small bows at waist, scooped neckline, and elbow sleeves. She wore a headpiece of seed pearls and rhinestones with a theater veil. Her bouquet was an arrangement of red rosebuds, lilies of the valley and white satin streamers.

Miss Linda Huff of Chester, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. Miss Janice Mann, also of Chester and a cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Both were attired in gowns identical to that of the maid of honor. They carried a cascade arrangement of red rosebuds, lilies of the valley and white satin streamers.

The bride's mother chose a blue lace sheath with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a blue brocade satin sheath with jacket and white accessories. Both wore corsages of red rosebuds.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ralph Bowen of Chester, wore a blue silk dress. Mrs. Louella Wycoff of Shippingport, grandmother of the bridegroom, chose an orchid silk dress. Both ker. The November meeting will be a coverdinner at the home of Mrs. Mary Hough of Lincoln Ave. Miss Florence Bishop will have devotions and Mrs. Pearce, the entertainment.

While there, Mrs. Haustman entertained 21 members of the immediate family in honor of her father, who was 83 on Oct. 19, Craig Wasley, 14 on Oct. 10 and her husband, 65 on Oct. 22.

MRS. HERBERT L. ROGERS

wore white carnation corsages. For traveling, the bride wore a beige suit with a Norwegian fox fur collar, brown accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Buck Johnson of Aliquippa was best man and ushers were Jim Laughlin of Hookstown, a friend of the bridegroom, and Roger Jones, of Shippingport, a cousin of the bridegroom.

A reception for 200 guests was held in the church social rooms with the Women's Association in charge. The buffet table was centered with a five - tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple. Arrangements of pom poms and greenery and lighted tapers encircled the cake. The bridal table, covered with a white linen cloth, was centered with white pom poms and candelabra. Glass appointments completed the setting.

Mrs. Helen Huff of Pughtown, great - aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Aides were Mrs. Paul Wern, Mrs. Odessa Jones, Mrs. Lucille Miller, Mrs. Anna Heron, Mrs. Ralph Huff and Mrs. Alice Stivison.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Chester High School and a 1962 graduate of the Ohio Valley Business College. She is a secretary at the Tri - State Producing Co., Inc., in East Liverpool.

Her husband is a 1959 graduate of South Side High School and a 1962 graduate of the Ohio Valley Business College. He attended night classes at Geneva College at Beaver Falls and is employed in the office of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

The couple will reside in a newly - furnished apartment at 215 2nd St., Chester, following a honeymoon in Washington, D. C.

The rehearsal party was held at the home of the bride's parents, with Mrs. Beatrice Mann, aunt of the bride, as hostess. The attendants were presented gifts. The table was centered with a large cake on which was inscribed "Congratulations Diane and Herbie."

Wellsville Couple Marks Date Of Golden Wedding

MR. AND MRS. WILLIS ROBINSON
Quietly Observing 50 Years Of Their Marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Robinson, 1720 Clark Ave., Wellsville, are quietly observing their golden wedding anniversary.

The former Miss Edith Jacobs and Robinson were united in marriage Oct. 20 by the Rev. Jester of the Methodist Episcopal Church at the home of her parents, the late Henry and Laura Jacobs, in Wellsville.

Mrs. Robinson is a lifelong resident of Wellsville, having graduated from high school in 1909. Her husband, born in Mineral City, came to Wellsville when 11. She is 73 and he is 71. Robinson is a retired Pennsylvania Railroad employee and has been retired since 1949 after 37 years service as a clerk and station agent.

Sunday, the couple was honored with a family dinner at Hoge's Drive-In Restaurant near East Liverpool by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Crooks. Other guests were Billy and Linda Crooks, and Mrs. Ruth Heldman of East Liverpool and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Heldman of Lincoln Heights.

Lisbon Pool's Walk Repairs To Cost $559

LISBON — Council Monday night authorized Donald Carmen to repair cement walks at the Sadio VanFossan Memorial Swimming Pool for $559.40, with the village street crew to prepare the area.

Carmen gave Mayor Dean Stockman a bid of $318.66 for cement, $47.30 for reinforcing wire, $24.48 for expansion joints and $168.96 for labor.

In other business, the street committee recommended that a one hour parking space be made available on the east side of the Lisbon Hotel on S. Market St.

The manager complained to Mayor Stockman that parking all day alongside his hotel was hurting business.

He asked Council for parking meters but the street committee decided they were not feasible and proposed the one hour parking.

Mayor Stockman said he would obtain the necessary signs and would instruct the police to enforce the parking restriction.

Council also discussed a problem with the snow bucket for the new tractor. The scoop is not as wide as the rear wheels, making it impossible to get up to the curbs. Council discussed the possibility of transferring the bucket from the old tractor to the new one or ascertaining if a local welder can extend the new bucket to the width of the wheels. Council will recommend whichever change is cheaper and best.

Bills of $5,230 was ordered paid. Next meeting is Nov. 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the village hall chambers.

Special Services Set Wednesday For Nazarenes

The Rev. and Mrs. H. K. Bedwell, Nazarene teachers and missionaries to Swaziland, South Africa, who are on furlough, will conduct special services Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the First Church of the Nazarene.

The Bedwells, who are British, are veteran missionaries and were assigned to South Africa in 1931. They were on furlough in 1946 and 1955.

Rev. Bedwell was graduated from the Emmanuel Bible College, Birkenhead, England, and prior to his religious training was an engineer.

In the missionary talks, Rev. Bedwell will describe the country and the people and tell about the work of the denomination, which maintains two hospitals and several schools and churches there. He will show colored slides.

Trustees Accept Plat In Substation District

St. Clair Township trustees Monday night formally accepted a Substation plot of Charles Shapiro of East Liverpool.

The trustees also officially awarded a contract for purchase of a dump truck to the Wimmer Motor Sales at a cost of $6,650. The truck is to be delivered in December.

Kenneth Myers, township Civil Defense director, was authorized to conduct a fallout shelter survey program.

Sharing of the cost of replacement of a sewer before the Staunton Ave. homes of Peter Stepanovich and Robert Coie was approved after a discussion with the two men.

Woman Pleads Guilty To Embezzlement

MEDINA, Ohio (AP)—On the opening day of her trial on charges of burning Municipal Court records in an attempt to defraud by setting fire to the court offices, Mrs. Ann Thiem, 42, of Brunswick pleaded guilty of embezzling $702 while she was a deputy clerk.

Her plea in Medina Common Pleas Court Monday left a charge of arson against her. She is accused of starting the Feb. 16 fire that ruined the court offices. The charges followed a state auditor's report, which turned up shortages in her department.

Installation Set Next Month

New Officers Elected By Southern Ruritans

New officers, headed by Fred Leughmyer, were elected at a meeting of the Southern Ruritan Club Monday night at the Bethel Presbyterian Church near Wellsville.

Leughmyer was named president to succeed John Witherow. A moldmaker at the Sterling China Co., Leughmyer resides at 615 15th St., Wellsville. He has served as vice president of the club the past year.

Other officers named were William Wellington, vice president; J. Frederick Russell, second term as secretary; Wayne Rose, treasurer; Walter Nelson, three-year trustee; Paul Serafy, sergeant-at-arms, and the Rev. William Harper of the Bethel Church, chaplain.

The installation will be held in November. Ralph Schneider of North Georgetown, district governor, will be the installing officer.

Twenty-six attended. Chal Thorne was program chairman. Earl Hamilton of the Lisbon Ruritan Club screened films of old threshing machines and steam engines in action. He also showed pictures of an old railroad woodburner he has purchased and plans to operate on his farm.

Seven will attend a district meeting Saturday at Sandy Valley High School between

173 Attend Party For Cub Scouts

A Halloween party attended by 173 was held Friday night by Cub Scout Pack 36 of the Longs Run United Presbyterian Church at the Calcutta fire hall.

Prizes were awarded for costumes. Those in charge were Mrs. Louise Lencse, chairman; Mrs. Wanda O'Hanlon, games; Mrs. Doris Thompson, refreshments; Mrs. Virginia Bernstorf, prizes; Mrs. Kate Barker, decorations.

Awards and patches were presented Daniel Simms, Jan Rice, Gary Cunningham, Dean Duffy, Stephen Brandt, Robert Patterson, Kenneth Cross, Richard Walker, Dennis Thompson, Allen Bernstorf, William Och and Terry Cross.

New members received were Thomas Fisher, Matthew Stewart, William Blair, Robert Redmond and Jerry Coplin. William Och and David Tittle have transferred to the pack from other units.

Norman Lamping was named the new Webelos leader. Mrs. Doris Thompson read a ghost story. Den 9 presented a skit.

A special meeting will be held at the church Wednesday night at 7. The next pack meeting will be Nov. 28 at 7 p.m. in the church.

A planning meeting for a Blue and Gold banquet will be held Nov. 6 at the home of Mrs. Mary Simms. David O'Hanlon is cubmaster.

Mother, 18, Charged In Daughter's Death

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The death of a 16-month-old girl has resulted in police charging the mother, Mrs. Rosetta L. Shephard, 18, with second-degree murder.

The baby died Sunday in children's hospital. When she was admitted Friday, the hospital said, the infant was suffering from a broken arm and other body fractures in various stages of healing, and was critically ill.

60 Hear GOP Candidates

Sixty attended a Republican coffee hour Monday night at the Belek St. Civic League at which Merrill D. Hall, mayoralty nominee, and other GOP candidates for city offices spoke.

Hall reiterated his points that East Liverpool has potential and that various improvements being made indicate the favorable attitude needed to attract new industry.

Jack Woerner, president of the Horace Mann Parent-Teacher Association and a non-partisan candidate for Board of Education, also spoke. He was invited by Mrs. Elizabeth Carter, who served as hostess.

Miss Gladys DeBolt, county chairwoman, urged the audience to support State Issue No. 1, pointing out it is not a new tax but a continuation of a one-cent per pack tax on cigarettes.

It was announced the two mayoralty candidates will participate in a question-and-answer period on WOHI on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Other GOP candidates were introduced along with County Commissioners James Boyd and Walter Hunston and County Recorder Richard Brian.

250,000 Linked To Bootlegging At Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—A state liquor department enforcement officer says some Municipal Court judges are failing to follow the law in fining liquor violators.

The officer, Ralph W. Kreiger, enforcement chief for a five-county area in northeastern Ohio, blamed the courts for a breakdown in enforcement.

Kreiger estimated 250,000 persons are involved in bootlegging operations in the Cleveland area. That total includes patrons and bootleggers. The enforcement chief said his office has uncovered evidence that indicates a bootlegger "seriously in this for the money" can make a weekly profit of $300.

Some are small-time operations, but some operators combine bootlegging with plushy gambling layouts, Kreiger said.

A typical bootlegger today, he said, is one who turns his home into commercial use by selling pints of whisky or shots of liquor in addition to beer and wine.

Many of the bootleggers set up fancy bars with neon lights and night club atmospheres in their homes, Kreiger said. They charge $1 to $1.25 more for a pint of whisky than state liquor stores.

Firemen Hold Social Event

Eighteen attended a social meeting of Calcutta volunteer firemen Monday night at the home of Chief Laverne Seckman, with billiards, shuffleboard and cribbage featured.

Dale Horgar, president, conducted brief business. It was announced that the Tri-State Firemen's Association will meet tonight at Midland.

Chief Seckman discussed a stubborn brush fire the department brought under control after a long battle Friday night.

The fire broke out on a steep hillside of thick brush and burned into the treetops between the old and new Fredericktown roads north of Calcutta.

Twenty Calcutta firemen, plus many neighbors, fought the fire from 6:30 to 1:30 a.m. before bringing it under control. Firemen also stayed at the scene all night and checked the area every two hours on Saturday to guard against a flareup. Six tankers of water were used in controlling the fire, which burned over 10 acres. Glenmoor firemen were of great assistance in shuttling water to the fire, Chief Seckman said.

Chili was served for lunch. Next meeting is Monday. Seckman's home phone is connected with the department's phone and fire alarm system in order that firemen can respond to alarms while visiting.

Massillon Increases Lead In Ohio Gridiron Ratings

Springfield 2nd, Niles Close Third; Potters Gain Ground

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Title time is only a few weeks away, and Massillon's nine-time state champions are still out front in the Ohio high school football race.

Leo Strang's once-beaten Stark County powerhouse stretched its lead a bit today in the weekly Associated Press poll over Springfield South's challenging Wildcats and the 1961 Red Dragon champs of Niles McKinley.

A week ago the Tigers led Springfield by only three poll points, 281 to 278, while Niles was eight points further back. Today Massillon held a 279 to 256 edge over the Wildcats, and Niles was only two points behind Springfield.

Massillon's 22-8 victory over Warren's rugged Panthers helped the Tiger cause as 48 sports writers voted in the poll. Springfield ran its winning streak to eight with a 38-6 triumph over Hamilton Garfield, while Niles stepped outside the state to pin a 27-6 defeat on Farrell, Pa.

Sandusky's Blue Streaks, tied once in eight games, smothered Fremont 34-0 and gained on everyone by picking up 26 points over last week's total for 230, while all three leaders were dropping back.

Alliance, 10th last week, was victimized 41-0 by resurgent Canton McKinley. The thrice-beaten Bulldogs, who smothered Steubenville a week ago, climbed into a tie for 10th with Fremont St. Joseph's eighth-game winners, turning this week's Top Ten into a Top Eleven.

Only other change in the elite list came as Cleveland St. Ignatius traded places with Akron Garfield, the Rubber City team dropping to seventh.

From here and there:
The East Liverpool Potters rebounded from two straight losses to whip unbeaten Weirton, West Virginia's No. 1 team, 20-18. Licking Valley snapped a 33-game losing string by beating Heath 29-6. It was Valley's first victory since Oct. 9, 1959.

Mansil Hurlbut, 132 pounds of speed, drew his first starting role for Circleville against Greenfield McClain—and on the first scrimmage play raced 77 yards for a touchdown. Roundtown won it 34-6.

Steve Wise, Findlay quarterback, completed only four passes in the 14-6 triumph over Lorain Admiral King, all to halfback John Bromley. Two, for 12 and 22 yards, were for touchdowns, another for a two-point conversion, and the fourth for 23 yards—as all the points came on the tosses.

Marc McClain, Bellevue's rapid senior halfback, was busy in the 40-6 pasting of Norwalk. He rushed 215 yards in 12 carries, ran an intercepted pass back 82 yards, had a 72-yard scoring run nullified by a penalty and scored four touchdowns.

Sandusky beat Fremont Ross 34-0 for its fourth shutout in eight games and limited the Little Giants to five yards and no first downs in the second half. Jim Griest of Beaver Creek raced a kickoff 101 yards for the winning touchdown in the 14-12 victory over Dayton Chaminade as 7,000 cheered.

WVU Coach To Speak At Oak Glen Grid Fete

Head Coach Gene Corum of West Virginia University will be speaker at a banquet Dec. 7 in the Chester Masonic Temple for the Oak Glen High School football squad.

Date of the event was re-set by the Oak Glen Boosters Club Monday night at Newell Junior High School, with Jack Watson, president, in charge. It was previously set Nov. 16.

Plans were made to serve the squadmen after the next two home games — Friday night with Moundsville and Nov. 8 with Winterville. Booster club members may go to the home economics room at Newell Junior High where the food will be served.

The club will sponsor a record hop Nov. 9 at Chester Junior High School, featuring Sid Grubb, a Weirton disc jockey known as "Mr. D."

A crest for the blazers of the athletic teams was chosen. It is to be a golden bear and the name of the school. The blazers will be Columbia blue.

Coach Bob Starkey and Coach

Vince Monseau screened movies of the victory over Follansbee St. Anthony. Watson and Paul Chink attended an Area Boosters Club meeting to discuss the All-Star game in Wheeling.

Thirty attended. Next meeting is Monday night at 7:30.

4 Teams In AFL To Show Profit

NEW YORK (AP)—Four, and possibly six, of the eight teams in the American Football League will show a profit for the 1963 season, Commissioner Joe Foss announced.

Foss said Monday that attendance had passed the 600,000 mark at the halfway point of the season—an increase of 80,000 at this stage last year.

"We really are moving along," said Foss. "Dollar volume is up 29 per cent. All the clubs are up."

Foss declined to name the teams who were in the black but made it clear that New York and Oakland still are on the losing side of the ledger.

week. Massillon goes against once-beaten Cleveland Benedictine, the 1957 state champion; Niles is host to East Tech of Erie, Pa., and Springfield entertains Lima. Niles has a 44-game unbeaten streak going.

Fremont St. Joseph, newcomer to the top-ranked list, has won 17 in a row, with 10 shutouts. Hamilton Garfield had 13 first downs to Springfield South's 9 but lost 38-6 as Aaron Marsh of the Wildcats scored on 75 and 95-yard runs.

Cedarville has won seven after losing the opener, the last three by shutouts.

Shelby defeated Upper Sandusky 32-18 despite 17 penalties which cost 205 yards. Unbeaten Mount Vernon has intercepted 11 of 75 enemy passes, with halfback Chuck Purcell—5-foot-8 and 145 pounds—stealing six. Ashland, with only Defiance between it and an unbeaten season, is in its first winning campaign since Jim Roseboro starred there in 1952.

Steubenville's Big Red, which is having troubles, fell 36-0 to Dayton Colonel White as John Cromer of the victors scored on dashes of 70 and 72 yards, took a 50-yard pass for another and passed for a fourth.

Navy Rewarded With 4th Place

Texas 1st By Big Margin; Pitt Drops To 10th Spot

By The Associated Press
Texas still is No. 1 in college football, but who's No. 2? The ballots says Illinois but the voters are in sharp disagreement.

One member of the Associated Press football board of sports writers and broadcasters put it this way: "Snow White Texas No. 1, followed by the following dwarfs."

The Texas Longhorns, who won their sixth game of the season by the rather close score of 10-6 against dangerous Rice, received 49 first place votes and two seconds from the 51 AP board members voting. That gave them 506 points of a possible 510 on the basis of 10 for a first-place vote, nine for second, etc. down to one for 10th.

Illinois got one vote for first, and the bulk of the seconds, 19, but was listed at every spot except ninth. Navy, which drew the other first place vote, was named for each of the other nine places at least twice. Auburn, Alabama and Wisconsin received votes for every place from two through 10. Votes for Mississippi, which wound up third, and for Oklahoma were almost as widely scattered.

Illinois drew a total of 353 points to become a distant second to Texas. Mississippi received 306 points for third while Navy beat out Auburn 278-266 for fourth. Others in the thoroughly shaken-up Top Ten list were Oklahoma, Alabama, Wisconsin, Ohio State and Pittsburgh.

Illinois and Ole Miss had been fourth and fifth a week ago and Navy 10th while Wisconsin and Pitt had held the second and third spots. Wisconsin dropped to eighth after a 13-10 loss to Ohio State, which returned to the Top Ten after two weeks absence. Pitt, after its 24-12 beating by Navy, barely edged resurgent Southern California, the 1962 national champion, for the last place. Northwestern, suffering its second Big Ten defeat, 15-7 to Michigan State, dropped out of the Top Ten.

Illinois moved up on the strength of its 18-12 Friday night victory over UCLA and Mississippi whipped Vanderbilt 27-7 Saturday. Each is undefeated but has played one tie. Unbeaten Auburn was idle last week but advanced from eighth to fifth.

Oklahoma and Alabama exchanged places, the Sooners going up and the Tide down, although both won. Oklahoma walloped Kansas State 34-9 while Alabama had some trouble subduing Houston 21-13.

The top ten teams and points:

	Pts.
1. Texas	506
1. Illinois	353
3. Mississippi	306
4. Navy	278
5. Auburn	266
6. Oklahoma	246
7. Alabama	213
8. Wisconsin	181
9. Ohio State	83
10. Pittsburgh	76

Knicks Trade Shue, Hogue For McGill

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Knicks of the National Basketball Association announced today they had traded Gene Shue and Paul Hogue to the Baltimore Bullets for Billy McGill.

McGill, the nation's leading collegiate scorer with Utah in 1962, was somewhat of a disappointment with Chicago last year before the Chicago franchise was shifted to Baltimore.

It was the second deal within a week for the Knicks who are adopting a youth movement after winning only 21 of 80 games last season. In the first they sold Richie Guerin to St. Louis and got Tom Hoover, former Villanova star, from Philadelphia on waivers.

Hogue, 6-foot-9 like McGill, starred on Cincinnati's national collegiate champions several years ago and was the Knicks' No. 1 draft choice last season. Shue, a 6-foot-2 veteran who once starred with the Detroit Pistons, had planned to retire but signed with the Knicks last week.

Bellamy Setting NBA Point Pace

NEW YORK (AP)—Walt Bellamy of the Baltimore Bullets is the top scorer in the National Basketball Association after the first two weeks of play.

Wilt Chamberlain of San Francisco is in sixth place.

The NBA's first statistical release of the season showed Bellamy in the No. 1 spot today with 175 points in six games and a 29.2 average. Bob Pettit of St. Louis also has a 29.2 average but has played one less game and is in second place with 146 points.

Scoring record-holder Chamberlain is sixth with 102 points and a 25.5 average.

Lombardi Praises Work Of 2 Offensive Linemen

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—A pair of the Green Bay Packers prized offensive linemen have told what they feel before a National Football League game.

"I felt mean," said guard Jerry Kramer, whose efforts in Sunday's 34-20 victory over the Colts in Baltimore drew the compliments of Green Bay Coach Vince Lombardi.

"I knew I had my work cut out for me," said tackle Forrest Gregg, also accorded one of the rare public salutes by Lombardi.

"Not only did they play a whale of a game Sunday but they've been doing a good job all year," said Lombardi.

Kramer, who also does the Packer place-kicking, kept pace with his feelings. In addition to scoring 10 points on a pair of field goals and four conversions, he cleared out the entire right side of the Baltimore line as halfback Elijah Pitts dashed 34 yards for the touchdown that put the Packers ahead to stay in the final period.

Gregg, whose job put him face to face with Gino Marchetti, the Colts' great defense end, said, "I knew that if I didn't do a job on him, he'd be all over our quarterback. And John Roach was the only one we had left."

Starr, Green Bay's starting quarterback is out for an indefinite period with a fracture in his right hand.

Bowyer, Nusser, Burbick Cited Top Potter Players

Hard running fullback Bob Bowyer, substitute Terry Nusser and co-captain Bruce Burbick were named the outstanding performers in the Potters victory over Weirton by the ELHS coaching staff.

Bowyer scored all 20 points and gained 92 yards in 26 carries to lead the Potter offensively.

Coach Bob Hedmond said

"Nusser did an excellent job of replacing Bowyer as a defensive cornerback. He has to be given credit for firing up our defensive unit."

"We felt Burbick did an outstanding job both offensively and defensively," Hedmond pointed out. It was Burbick who also recovered the fumble late in the fourth quarter to give the Potters a chance to score.

Dewey Ave. Grid Teams Sweep 2 Wins At Chester

The Dewey Ave. Red Devils continued running up victories as the junior and senior teams posted triumphs Sunday.

The Pee Wee Red Devils defeated the Chester Tigers, 19-0, with Bob Parfitt, Jerry Talbott and Bruce VanMeter scoring the touchdowns. Keith LeMaster added the extra point. The Pee Wee eleven has a 4-0-1 mark.

The Midget Red Devils team defeated the Dixonville Vikings, 7-0. Al Foster took a pass from Larry Jackson and went 60 yards for the lone touchdown while Jackson added the extra point. The victory was the seventh in a row for the midget squad.

The Red Devils will travel to Waynesburg, Pa., Saturday night to meet the Bonar Bears, who are the city champs of Waynesburg.

Bucks Prepare For Iowa

Hayes Feels OSU Has Lost Greenness, Will Be Strong

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Jubilant Woody Hayes, still on Cloud Nine after Ohio State's upset victory over Wisconsin last week-end, appears ready to get down to the serious business of preparing for Saturday's encounter with Iowa.

"We may have a problem getting ready for a good Iowa team," Hayes told his Monday press luncheon.

The Buckeye coach, obviously delighted with Ohio's 13-10 triumph over the Badgers, nevertheless showed some concern over the battle with the Hawkeyes.

"We have to cut out a lot of mistakes and make a lot of improvements," Hayes insisted.

Nonpareil Club Sets Meeting At YMCA

The meeting of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club at which the public is invited to view movies of East Liverpool's upset over Weirton, will be held tonight at 8 in the YMCA and not at Westgate school as announced Monday.

He was quick to pay tribute to a Wisconsin team "which had tremendous over-all ability and possibly was the best Badger squad we ever faced."

Hayes also singled out Don Unverferth, the Dayton sophomore signal-caller who engineered Ohio's winning touchdown drive, and fullback Matt Snell. "Snell gave us a great game," Hayes said, "and sitting on the bench didn't wilt Unverferth. He did a splendid job."

Woody said he especially was proud of the way "the kids picked themselves up after that Southern California game."

"They fought their way back from a bitter, humiliating defeat. Everyone loses once in a while—but the great teams come back."

With that statement, Hayes indicated that the 1963 Buckeye edition, having lost its early-season greenness, might be one of the really good ones he's turned out.

Radar Used By Nicklaus In Paris Fog

By JOHN FARROW
Associated Press Sports Writer
PARIS, France (AP)—Jackie Nicklaus played the last round of the Canada Cup Golf Tournament in a swirling fog Monday as if he had a radar—and he did.

The 23-year-old husky hitter from Columbus, Ohio, disclosed after he had won individual title with a 63-hole total of 237 and the team title for the United States with Arnold Palmer at 48 that he carried a "kind of radar."

"It's in my hip pocket in the shape of a card," he said. "I pace every course I play. I know the distances, not by just looking, but by knowing. I don't play by visual guessing of distances."

Nicklaus, who had played well in the fog once before in the 1959 U.S. Amateur at Colorado Springs, Colo., did the final nine holes in a four-under-par 32. The last nine holes were canceled because of the fog that blanketed the course for the second straight day.

Nicklaus' total was five strokes better than Sebastian Miguel of Spain and South African Gary Player, who finished in a tie for second.

Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer carded a 63-hole team total of 482—22-under-par for the Saint-nom-la-Breche course in the suburbs of Paris. They were three strokes better than second-placed Spaniards Miguel and Ramon Sota, and 10 better than Player and Retief Waltman of South Africa.

Palmer never got his putter working like he normally does and finished with a 34 for a total of 245. He was tied in fifth with Al Balding of Canada and Bruce Crampton of Australia.

Geoffrion Eyes Another 50-Goal Season In AHL

MONTREAL (AP) — Montreal's Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion may be headed for another 50-goal season in the National Hockey League if he can maintain his league-leading scoring pace.

League statistics today showed Geoffrion, Canadians' teammate Jean Beliveau and Chicago's Stan Nikita tied for the scoring lead with 12 points each.

Geoffrion, 32-year-old right wing, won the NHL scoring title with 50 goals and 45 assists in the 1960-61 season but has scored only 23 goals in each of the last two seasons.

The Black Hawks Glenn Hall took over the goaltending lead with a 2.13 goals against average. Toronto's Johnny Bower is second at 2.17.

Palmer Still Leads Golf Money Winners

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — The top 10 touring professional golfers have won $607,731 this year headed by Arnold Palmer with $128,230, the PGA reported today.

The figures include official PGA tournaments only through the Fresno Open last week.

Mason Rudolph's victory in that event boosted him to seventh place with $35,495.

Jack Nicklaus is in second place among the winners with $98,990.

The Red Devils will travel to Waynesburg, Pa., Saturday night to meet the Bonar Bears, who are the city champs of Waynesburg.

Berra Even Surprised Scout Who Signed Him

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The man who brought Yogi Berra to the New York Yankees 21 years ago admits now that "I had no idea he'd be that good. I thought Yogi would be good enough with the bat to be a second-string catcher."

But Berra surprised almost everybody, including Johnny Schulte who scouts the St. Louis area now for the Cleveland Indians.

Back in 1942, Schulte was a Yankee coach and he watched Berra hit two homers in an American Legion game. He recommended a $500 outlay for Yogi—an offer which would have induced the St. Louis youngster to sign with the Cardinals.

But Branch Rickey, then Cardinal general manager, offered only $250.

And now, Schulte reflects, Berra is the Yankee manager. "None of the scouts around here," he recalls, "was crazy about Berra. Some of them thought he was built kinda funny. He was too funny looking, they thought."

Early in his career, Berra had difficulty returning the ball to the pitcher, Schulte said. But Schulte, a former big league catcher, worked with Yogi until Yankee Manager Bucky Harris became interested in him.

Schulte, a 20-year big leaguer, played with the Cardinals, Philadelphia and Cubs in the National League and with the old St. Louis Browns in the American League.

Browns Must Shake Ill Feeling Of Giant Loss

CLEVELAND (AP)—Can the Cleveland Browns bounce back from their horrendous beating by New York last Sunday after six straight triumphs? That's what National Football League rivals are eager to find out.

Coach Blanton Collier, who sends his club through its first workout today for the game in Philadelphia with the Eagles Sunday, feels the players will be able to dismiss the 33-6 loss to the Giants.

"If they are the kind of people I think they are, that game won't hurt our morale," Collier said Monday night. "I said before the season that I expected the team to be in contention. That one loss hasn't changed my mind."

The Browns hold a one-game lead over the Giants and Cardinals, who meet in St. Louis Sunday in the battle for second place. A Cleveland loss would send the winner at St. Louis into a tie for the top spot with the Browns.

Although the Browns were as decisively whipped as few teams in the league have ever been, they came out of the Giants' contest fairly healthy.

Defensive tackle Bob Gain was being treated at a hospital for a jammed neck but was much improved Monday night and probably will be able to join the workout. Halfback Ernie Green has bruised ribs but he should be ready to play against the Eagles.

Galen Fiss, captain and line-backer, played part of the way to be in contention. That one loss hasn't changed my mind. The Browns hold a one-game lead over the Giants and Cardinals, who meet in St. Louis Sunday in the battle for second

Cotton, Hank To Fight For Mich. Crown

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — Two aging veterans with a zinging punch, Eddie Cotton of Seattle and Henry Hank of Detroit, will battle here tonight for the Michigan-only "world" light heavyweight championship.

Michigan's Boxing Commission will recognize the winner of the 15-round bout in Flint's Ima Auditorium as king of the division, but this won't affect world champion Willie Pastrano's status elsewhere.

Cotton, who has scored 21 knockouts in his 62 pro fights, is favored to beat Hank who, at 28, is four years younger than Cotton.

Hank also is no slouch when it comes to chilling his opponents. The Detroit sharpshooter has flattened 37 of his 74 rivals.

The World Boxing Association lists Cotton as Pastrano's top challenger and ranks Hank sixth in the division.

Cotton's adviser, George Chermers, has indicated he will have a pre-fight skirmish with Dave Gudelsky, the state boxing commissioner, over Michigan's rest-period rule. Fighters must rest 90 seconds, rather than the usual 60 seconds, between rounds.

Michigan imposed the rule after the death of Benny Kid Paret.

Chermers said he was not aware of the stipulation when the Cotton-Hank contracts were signed in August. Had he known of the 90-second rule, Chermers said, he probably would have called off the bout.

Gudelsky said he would discuss Chermers' complaint with him before the bell rings at 9 p.m. EST. tonight.

A beef by Baxter led to Gudelsky's decision to declare the Cotton-Hank scrap a title fight.

Hank was unable to go through with a scheduled championship bout with Harold Johnson earlier this year because of a training injury. Pastrano replaced Hank and whipped Johnson.

2 Pike Workers Draw Fines For Petty Larceny

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP) — Nunzio Garro and Thomas Kerfoot, both Ohio Turnpike employees from Ravenna, were fined $100 each Monday in Municipal Court on charges of petty larceny.

Garro pleaded no contest to a charge of taking $40 while working at the Streetsboro interchange toll booth, while Kerfoot pleaded guilty to taking $40. Kerfoot quit his part time job Saturday as Ravenna safety director.

Robert D. Holt of Newton Falls pleaded innocent to a charge of embezzling at least $1,000 from the turnpike and his bond of $2,000 was continued. A preliminary hearing was set for Dec. 7.

Portage County Prosecutor George Martin has said a former turnpike patrolman also has admitted he took $40 from Holt to keep quiet.

The investigation into shortages of toll collections at the Streetsboro Interchange is continuing, Martin said.

Bethea Faces Jury About Boxer's Death

BALTIMORE (AP) — Heavyweight Wayne Bethea was scheduled to talk to a grand jury today about his Oct. 14 fight with Ernie Knox, a Baltimore boxer who died 32 hours after Bethea knocked him out.

Doctors said Knox, 26, suffered a brain hemorrhage.

The fight at the Coliseum was a scheduled 10-rounder. Knox was knocked out in the ninth round. He regained consciousness for a time, but lapsed into a coma from which he never recovered.

Bethea, 31, weighed in for the match at 205 pounds.

Knox's weight was listed officially at 178. But medical examiners said Knox's body weighed 153 pounds at an autopsy.

3,000 Workers Idled In Strike At Car Plant

CINCINNATI (AP) — More than 3,000 workers at two General Motors plants in suburban Norwood have been idled because of a strike at the Chevrolet plant.

About 1,340 United Auto Workers Union members left their jobs Monday to protest an alleged speed-up. The company said the dispute was about work standards. After the Chevrolet strike, work stopped at the neighboring Fisher Body plant.

Something Like A Movie Melodrama

Memphis State Star Comes Back From Hospital To Spark Victory

By DON MCLEOD
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Section by section the fans saw him coming and a roar swept the football stadium like a wave as No. 12 emerged from the dressing room and jogged onto the field.

Russell Vollmer was back from the hospital and with his return came a 17-10 Memphis State victory over Mississippi State.

Vollmer's return from a hospital treatment room to the playing field and victory Saturday night would have been coronary in a movie melodrama—but it was true.

The Tigers were trailing. They had fallen behind shortly after their quarterback had been carried away in an ambulance in the first quarter, victim of a brutal tackle that sent him flying over the benches and onto the track.

As the fourth quarter started, Vollmer resumed command. A drive was stalling deep in Bulldog territory, third and five on the eight.

The Tigers tensed.

The handoff went to fullback Dave Casinelli. A big hole opened and Casinelli went to the 2½-yard line. Vollmer sneaked to the one. Another big hole and Casinelli went over.

The entire Memphis State bench was up to greet Vollmer as he came off the field and 32,000 fans yelled themselves hoarse.

The touchdown put Memphis State over the hump to its first unbeaten season since 1938 and left the Tigers at the top of the nation's major independent teams.

It was Vollmer's victory.

He had opened the game by taking the kickoff back 78 yards to the Bulldog 16, coolly maneuvered the Tigers to the goal line and sent Casinelli over.

A few minutes later he gathered in a punt and was on his way with another good return.

He was nudged out of bounds on the Tiger 31. Then two Bulldogs, coming up late, belted him off the playing field.

At the hospital x rays of his lower back showed no broken bones. He could play.

"Go get 'em, Russ . . . score two or three touchdowns," wished a bevy of nurses. "I'm going to try," responded Vollmer. A school chum drove him back to the stadium.

Darkness Halts Potter Reserves At Steubenville

East Liverpool's reserve team had the door closed twice on the one-yard line in dropping a 6-0 decision to Steubenville Central Monday at Steubenville.

The young Potters marched to the one in the first half only to have time run out. On another occasion, the Blue and White advanced to the one yard line when the officials called the game because of darkness.

Central had scored in the second quarter on a short plunge.

Coach Jim Potts cited the work of the Potter defensive line and the running of John Lowery and Ralph Smith.

The Potters with a 2-3-1 record and face Salem Saturday night at Salem with kickoff at 7:30.

Baltimore Policemen To Pick Up Slayer

CLEVELAND (AP) — Baltimore police were due here today to pick up Ollie J. Wilkins, 32, a Baltimore postal worker who has admitted to police here of strangling his wife and two sons.

Police said Wilkins surrendered Monday and admitted strangling his wife, Doris, 32, a school teacher, and their two boys, Kevin, 8, and Kerwin, 2, last Friday.

Data On Ex-Wellsville Man's Swim Is Studied By Navy

The Navy is evaluating the meager information gained from an underwater swim made recently by Fred (Buddy) Baldasare of Cocoa Beach, Fla., a native of Wellsville who has set several world records for underwater swimming.

Bad weather halted two attempts made by Baldasare in endurance tests along the Florida Coast. The last was Oct. 11.

The first was halted when a storm came up after he had traveled about 45 to 50 miles. A leak developed on the supply boat and forced him to get out of the water.

High seas with 10 to 12-foot waves, snapped electric lines supplying underwater lights during the second attempt. Baldasare also had trouble with air bottles, broken moorings and sharks. The winds also blew the ship dangerously close to shore.

Baldasare was ordered from the water after having traveled only 25 miles. The endurance test was designed to provide the Navy Department's Bureau of Medicine and Surgery with information in the disaster survival-at-sea program and the area of medical problems of underwater swimming.

Naval craft accompanied him on both attempts.

Lt. Cmdr. John Cassen Jr. of the Naval Ordnance Laboratory test facility at Ft. Lauderdale said Baldasare would have broken his 42-mile record if it hadn't been for mechanical breakdowns. Capt. Ed Beckman, head of the Navy medical team, said the swim did provide a significant amount of data.

Baldasare had said this would be his last attempt at any records. After the failure, he commented that "pride forbids me to think of quitting now."

Cmdr. Cassen indicated another attempt may be made in the spring under more favorable conditions.

Funeral To Be Today For Political Figure

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Funeral services will be conducted here today for Arthur B. Koontz, a former Democratic national committeeman, who died Sunday. He was 78.

Koontz was his party's nominee for governor in 1920. He served as national committeeman from 1940 to 1960.

"His death certainly is a great loss to all of us," Gov. Barron said. He was "a pillar of strength in the Democratic party and he was a good and faithful friend . . . always eager to serve his community, his state and his country in any way."

Koontz was a native of Nicholas County and a graduate of Yale law school.

Radio Says Cuba Has Ban On Beer Sales

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Havana Radio has announced a government ban on daytime sales of beer during work-days, starting today.

Fidel Castro's Interior Ministry set 6:30 p.m. as the time Cubans can start buying their brew.

"In this way workmen can buy beer after they finish their daily work, and vagrants and parasites will not be in a position to obtain great amounts of the product," said the broadcast, monitored in Miami.

French Police Find Weapons In House

MARTIGUES, France (AP) — Police said today they had found four tons of arms in a vacant house near this town in southern France.

The authorities declined to give any details as they began an inventory of the weapons. There was speculation that the arms were stocked by the anti-Gaullist Secret Army Organization, which had opposed Algerian independence. The terrorist group has been largely inactive for the past year.

Senate Unit Gets Secret Data On Drug Price 'Fix'

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Herald Tribune said today it has turned over to the Senate Antitrust subcommittee "secret documents of a worldwide cartel that rigs drug prices."

The newspaper said it obtained the papers from several sources. It did not elaborate.

In Washington, Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said the papers have been received by the subcommittee, which he heads. He said South American drug marketing practices and how U.S. firms are involved has been studied by the subcommittee behind closed doors for some time.

The Herald Tribune said "experts who have reviewed the documents are convinced that the price structure of certain drugs widely marketed in the U.S. is based on international agreements."

Woman Penalized $15 On 15 Parking Tickets

A woman motorist was penalized a total of $45.50 today in Municipal Court on a charge she ignored 15 parking tickets.

Ruth Shreve of Sophia St. was fined $38 and $7.50 costs when she pleaded guilty to an affidavit alleging specifically that she parked overtime on Washington St. April 16. Attached to the affidavit were 14 more tickets which she allegedly ignored.

The affidavit was signed Monday by Meter Maid Ruby E. English. In imposing the penalty, Judge Chertoff told Mrs. Shreve: "Everyone else has to pay to park, so you should, too. Some of these charges are two or three months old."

Charges Dropped In Narcotics Case

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A Dayton woman charged two weeks ago with two counts of narcotics violations was released from the city jail Monday after the charges were dropped.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Manuel, 33, was charged with possession for sale and sale of narcotics after a raid on her home Oct. 15. Police confiscated 17 capsules, which were believed to have contained drugs, and some money a vice squadman had used earlier to purchase similar capsules.

However, Montgomery County Prosecutor Paul R. Young said an examination of the capsules at federal laboratories in Cincinnati and Washington disclosed they contained no narcotics or illegal synthetic drugs.

Ike Named To Post With Speaking Union

For Wellsville Jaycees

Miss Broderick To Enter Contest

Miss Kathy Broderick, Miss Wellsville Jaycee, will be entered in a state contest, it was announced at a meeting of the Wellsville Jaycees Monday night.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Broderick, 1030 Main St., and will represent both Columbiana County and Wellsville in the state pageant held by the Dayton Junior Chamber of Commerce.

She will compete for a state title, a $1,000 scholarship and an opportunity to participate in the National Junior Miss pageant at Mobile, Ala.

Dave Orr was named Wellsville chairman of the project.

Tom Reed was selected as chairman of a committee to plan for Christmas activities in Wellsville. He will be assisted by Leonard Hephner.

Richard Kevan, president, presided. Jerry Russell gave the invocation. Thirty attended.

Robert Brooks, president, and Robert Lewis of the East Liverpool Junior Chamber were guests.

Brooks said East Liverpool will host the first meeting of the newly formed District 20, which includes East Liverpool, Wellsville, Salem, East Palestine, Columbiana, Lisbon and Steubenville. The district meeting will be Nov. 12 at the Vincent House on Route 30 near Chester.

Glenn Mathess will handle reservations for Wellsville. They are due by Friday.

Brooks also invited the Wells-ville members to the Blue Flame Festival being held by the Ohio Valley Gas Co. tonight and Wednesday nights at Westgate School.

Walt Henthorne reported on membership and Tom Reed gave a ways and means report. An automatic gas heater is being purchased for the hall.

Bill Miller reported on efforts to have a resident doctor or intern at City Hospital. A representative of the Columbiana County Medical Society will be invited to speak.

A report was heard on Fire Prevention Week activities.

Dan MacLean reported on the hunter safety program held for members of the Junior Rifle Club.

Miss Debbie Burrows, a Jaycee Queen, will be entered in the East Liverpool Christmas parade Nov. 29.

Plans were made for Bosses Night. Kevan spoke on Issue 1 to be on next Tuesday's ballot. The membership went on record endorsing all Jaycees who are candidates for city offices.

They are Wayne Rose, a past president, GOP mayoralty candidate; Tom Hunter, Democrat, auditor; Jerry Russell, Republican, for council - at - large; Nunzio Lombardo, Democrat, for Third Ward Council, and Henthorne, Democrat, for Fourth Ward Council.

A stag social will be held next Monday night at 8. The Board of Directors will meet Nov. 18. The next membership meeting will be Nov. 25.

Negroes Riot After Slaying

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Hundreds of Negroes surged through a North Philadelphia neighborhood Monday night protesting the slaying of a Negro by a policeman. Many of them broke windows, looted stores or menaced white drivers, authorities said.

Policemen estimated about 500 Negroes rioted through the streets before they were dispersed by about 60 policemen. Shattered glass littered the streets until garbage trucks and street cleaners moved in this morning.

Twenty-three persons, 19 of them minors, were arrested on charges of malicious mischief, disorderly conduct or breach of the peace.

Frank Johnson, 38, a policeman, was struck on the head by a milk bottle while trying to break up one mob. He fell to the ground unconscious and was taken to a hospital.

Other policemen were pelted with stones or bottles but none required treatment.

The neighborhood has been tense since Saturday's slaying of Willie Philpaw Jr., 24, a Negro. Police said he was shot by patrolman John Tourigian after lunging with a knife at the officer. The policeman who is white, told authorities he was arresting Philpaw for shoplifting.

Efforts In Vain To Separate Silo Following Blaze

BUYRUS, Ohio (AP)—Law enforcement officers, civil defense workers and volunteers tried in vain today to pull apart a silo at the Tiro Grain Elevator in nearby Tiro to prevent it from exploding following a $100,000 fire.

But soon after dismantling efforts began, fires broke out again and workers had to retreat to make room for firefighters from Tiro, New Washington, Shelby and Plymouth.

The main fire was brought under control Monday night about five hours after it broke out. But the thousands of gallons of water poured onto the blaze were absorbed by soybeans inside, causing the sides of the silo to begin bulging. Workers feared it would explode under the pressure of the swelling beans.

Highway patrolmen, Crawford County sheriff's deputies and city police blocked off all roads in the area of the elevator as a precaution in case of an explosion.

Fire officials said the damage probably will greatly exceed $100,000 by the time the trouble is over.

The cause of the fire was blamed on an overheated wire in a cob bin.

Chaplaincy Unit Will Buy Books

Plans were made to purchase volumes of Christmas stories of the American Bible Society when the Tri-State Hospital Chaplaincy Association met Monday at the First Baptist Church.

The Rev. Arden Beck, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Wellsville, chairman, presided.

The Scriptural booklets will be distributed to patients at City Hospital and Osteopathic Hospital during the Christmas season.

The Rev. Joseph Varner, chaplain, gave reports, including the new move to contact patients who are non-church members.

The Rev. Albert Rodenhauen, host pastor, was in charge of devotions.

Next meeting is Nov. 25 at the church. The group is sponsored by churches and interested persons of the Tri-State area.

Mayorality Aspirants Will Appear On Radio

The two men seeking the mayor's office in the general election Nov. 5 will answer questions in an interview program Wednesday night at 7:30 on WOHL.

Merrill Hall, Republican, and Councilman Frank Duffy, Democrat, will be interviewed by Stu Wilson, a member of the radio station's staff. Approximately 20 questions will run the gamut from the city income tax to parking meters and the "master plan."

The program will run indefinitely — until all the questions have been answered, the station management said. A tape recording will be rebroadcast Thursday at 10 a. m.

$31,620 Paid To City From Tax Settlement

City Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate said today he has received a check for $31,620 from County Auditor Kenneth Bell at Lisbon, representing an advance settlement on collection of personal property taxes.

Applegate said more than half of the settlement, $16,870, will go into the general fund. The balance of the distribution is: Incinerator department, $9,280; City Hospital, $2,950, and fire and police pension funds, $1,260 each.

Voted levies help support City Hospital and the incinerator department.

Woman Cited After Mishap

A woman driver was cited on two charges after a car-truck crash at 5th and Market Sts. at 8:11 a.m. today.

Clara Arrington, 23, of 878 State St. was charged with driving an unsafe vehicle and operating a car without a driver's license.

She was cited by Patrolman William A. Devon after a collision that involved her 1956 four-door sedan and a 1960 model truck driven by Donald McDowell, 39, of Boyd St. and owned by the Hall Plumbing & Heating Co. of Lincoln Ave.

McDowell told police he was headed south on Market St. and started through the intersection with the traffic light in his favor when the truck was hit on the side. The woman, driving west on 5th St., said she saw the light change and attempted to halt, but her brakes failed. The woman pleaded guilty before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff to the charge of operating an unsafe vehicle, which was based on the brake failure. She was fined $10 and costs. Officer Devon pointed out to the court her driver's license expired 12 days ago. The judge continued the second charge until Nov. 6 to allow the defendant to obtain a new permit.

Virgin Mary De-emphasized In Ecumenical Council Vote

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican Ecumenical Council de-emphasized its consideration of the Virgin Mary today, voting narrowly to incorporate a separate document concerning her in a larger schema on the Roman Catholic Church as a whole.

The action is expected to have wide implications for efforts to promote Christian unity. Protestants often have criticized Roman Catholic emphasis on Mary.

In another major action, the council approved a document endorsing efforts to work out an international perpetual calendar and a fixed date for Easter. The vote was 2,154 in favor, 21 against, and 16 in favor with reservations. Two ballots were null.

The vote on Mary was closer. A council spokesman said 1,114 prelates voted to incorporate consideration of the Virgin's place in Catholic theology in a broad schema or topic on the nature of the Church, while 1,074 voted to consider a separate schema on Mary.

Two council fathers voted for incorporation with reservations, and three ballots were blank.

It was one of the closest votes in the council since the assembly of 2,300 prelates opened more than a year ago. Council decisions usually require a two-thirds majority, but the action today was considered procedural and required only a majority of the 2,193 prelates voting, or 1,097 votes.

As a result of the vote, the Marian topic will become a chapter in the theological schema "De Ecclesia," which the council has been debating for the past month. "De Ecclesia" examines the nature and structure of the Roman Catholic Church.

At the heart of the matter is the highly controversial question of whether the role of the mother of Christ has been over-emphasized in Roman Catholic theology.

Some of the delegates feel a separate schema might put undue emphasis on Mary and distort her role in the church. This group holds that by making the Marian document part of a larger topic on the nature of the Church, the council could improve relations with Protestants.

The most densely populated country in Europe is Belgium, which crowds a population of 9,053,000 into an area of 11,779 square miles — or about 768.6 persons to every square mile.

No wonder I'm thrilled with my new GAS Range
It's beautiful and completely automatic even to that amazing Burner-with-a-Brain

Yes, nothing can equal my new Gas Range for the way it looks and the way it cooks. I love the handsome, modern styling that fits into any decorative scheme I choose.

And the way it cooks! I can be busy in another part of the house or even shopping at the supermarket. The Gas Range takes over. Turns itself on to the temperature I want and cooks the roast to rare perfection. If I'm delayed getting home, the Keep-Warm Oven turns itself down and keeps the roast rare for hours.

The Burner-with-a-Brain watches food automatically. No worry about vegetables scorching or messy boilovers.

Smokeless broiling is my assurance of a clean, cool kitchen. And nothing equals Gas to give chops and steaks that wonderful flame-kissed flavor.

The Gas Rotisserie is great for big roasts, poultry and hams. Operates automatically, too.

All of these modern features, available only in Gas Ranges, add up to better meals and more time to enjoy the family. Why not see for yourself . . . at your Gas Appliance Dealer's soon. Why not stop in tomorrow?

Mrs. Bernice Burkle of Salem was a weekend guest of Mrs. Bertha Esenwein.

James Crook of Canton visited relatives here over the weekend.

Monday guests of Mrs. Martha Crook included Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Inboden and Mrs. Louise Rowland of East Palestine and Mrs. Harry Hartford of Miami, Fla.

Minerva Area Driver Given Suspended Fine

LISBON — Mary M. Paxton, 20, of Minerva R.D. received a suspended $10 fine Monday in County Judge James L. MacDonald's court for operating a motor vehicle on registration plates issued to another car.

In other State Highway Patrol arrests, Dwight T. Henson, 41, of East Rochester forfeited a $20 bond for driving left of center and John J. Coe, 36, of Lisbon R.D., $15 bond for a defective muffler.

Gail F. Tyler, 28, of Cleveland, James R. Lapp, 20, of Eighty-Four, and Raymond J. Kutzner, 24, of Bridgeville, Pa., forfeited $15 bonds each for speeding.

Chamber Dinner Will Pay Tribute To Heathertones

The Heathertones Quartet, crowned international champions among women "barbershop style" vocalists over the weekend in Oakland, Calif., will be special guests at the fall dinner meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night at 6:30 at St. Aloysius School Hall.

Returning Monday night from the convention, the quartet accepted an invitation to be guests of honor at the dinner and sing several of the numbers that helped win the championship. The vocalists are Mrs. Lorida Harvey, Miss Norma Jones, Mrs. Betty Pettibon and Mrs. Bette Damaska.

About 150 are expected at the dinner. Principal speaker will be John C. Mahaney Jr. of Columbus, executive assistant of the Ohio Council of Retail Merchants.

The East Liverpool Merchants Association will be in charge of the program. William D. Ogilvie, Chamber president, will preside. Dayton Allen, ELMA chairman, will introduce Mahaney. Invocation will be by Fr. Thomas McCarthy, an assistant pastor at St. Aloysius Church.

Harvard fullback Askold Kohlmann hails from New Haven, Conn., home of the Crimson's arch-rivals, Yale.

CROP Program Set In County

LISBON — The Christian Rural Overseas Program—CROP—is now under way in Columbiana County. CROP is an agency through which the Church World Service Organization seeks funds to provide help for the needy all over the world. A $1 contribution will help secure and distribute over 300 pounds of surplus food.

Participating in the county are churches, ministerial associations, service clubs, Farm Bureau councils, Granges and 4-H Clubs. The Rev. Frank Hare, pastor of the Beaver Valley United Presbyterian Larger Parish of Lisbon R.D. 2, is County chairman.

Contributions for CROP may be sent to the County Extension Service Office, 113 S. Market St., to Miss Diane Armstrong, secretary-treasurer, or to the state office CWS-CROP, 141 N. Front St., Columbus 15, Ohio.

"Contributions will help send food, commodities or tools — items which encourage people to take responsibility for building a better future for themselves in areas of greatest needs," Rev. Hare said.

A total of $1,015 was collected in the county last year.

Michigan State has eight lighted athletic fields for evening intramural football and softball games.

Taft Vigorously Defends Rhodes' Austerity Plan

CLEVELAND (AP) — State Rep. William W. Taft, R-Cuyahoga, has vigorously defended Gov. James A. Rhodes' austerity program, saying the policy may hurt in Cleveland but is well accepted throughout the state.

Taft spoke before a meeting of the Cleveland area chapter of the National Association of Social Workers Monday.

"The public is discouraged, because no matter how much is spent on welfare, more is always needed," he said. "So, people ask what the legislators are doing about it."

"Legislators feel that just increasing relief payments is not meeting the problem; that there should be spending for education and industrial development, to find jobs for those willing to work and to prepare them. Ohio now has such a program."

A questioner asked Taft: "While people are learning under your program, what do you want them to do, starve?"

Taft replied: "It is an unfortunate situation, but a decision has to be made on what is important to do."

Wellsville Lodge, Affiliate Caution On 'Vandalism'

The Wellsville Fraternal Order of Police Lodge and its civilian affiliate, FOP Associates, today urged the cooperation of residents in combating Halloween vandalism this week.

At a meeting of the two lodges Monday night, a joint statement was issued stating they are "sorry the annual Halloween dance cannot be held this year". The project was abandoned earlier because of financial difficulties. In the past, a public parade and dance was held, with free prizes and refreshments. The lodges said they expect to have a "bigger and better" event next year.

Parents are urged to keep their children in their own neighborhoods. The children are asked not to engage in any acts of vandalism.

Joseph Heiney, FOP president, and Don Montgomery, FOPA vice president, presided.

Miami U. To Cut Off Girls' Applications

OXFORD, Ohio (AP)—Miami University is cutting off applications from girls who want to enroll as freshmen in 1964 two months earlier than usual.

Harry M. Gerlach, director of admissions, said Monday no more admission from coeds who would live in university housing are being accepted. He said Miami has received 1,600 applications for 1,150 openings.

Girls who will live at home and commute to school can continue to apply, Gerlach said. He urged others to apply for admission to Miami's general college at Dayton, which will open next September.

Applications from freshman men are still being accepted, but Gerlach said the cut-off date may be Christmas instead of next spring.

Ex-Tax Figure Dies

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Frank B. Coakley, 66, New York City tax commissioner in the administration of the late Mayor Jimmy Walker in the 1920s, died Monday after a brief illness.

Hospital Treats 4 In Emergencies

Two area boys injured in falls from bicycles and a youth hurt playing football were among four district residents treated at City Hospital Monday.

James Walrath, 14, son of Vernon Walrath of Lisbon St., suffered a cut on the left elbow in a fall from a bike.

Jimmy Jones, 12, son of Mrs.

Cassie Jones of 1216 Erie St., received cuts and abrasions on the left knee and elbow in a fall from a bike.

Larry Lee Brewer, 11, son of Mrs. Emma Brewer of 1621 Commerce St., Wellsville, was treated for a cut on the left leg received while playing football.

Richard Brown, 32, of Irondale R. D. 1 suffered a puncture wound of a finger on the left hand from a fish hook.

Indiana Man Named

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fred Wampler of Terre Haute, Ind., has been named regional coordinator for the Ohio River Appalachian area in a move designed to strengthen the Interior Department's participation in joint federal-state resource programs. The area includes Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee and West Virginia. Wampler will have his headquarters in Cincinnati.

Also held for trial at the Old Bailey Court were Christine's three co-defendants. The action was taken after a preliminary hearing by Marylebone magistrate's court.

The others are Christine's apartment mate, Paula Hamilton-Marshall, 23; her housekeeper, Mrs. Olive Brooker, 56; and West Indian Rudolph Fenton, 39.

63 Trapped In Mine Shaft Reported Safe

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—Sixty-three miners trapped in an elevator shaft of one of the world's deepest gold mines emerged safely Monday night to be greeted by jubilant relatives and friends.

All the miners were pronounced in good shape.

Thirteen were trapped for 12 hours in a cage nearly a mile below the surface. The other 50 spent 14 hours in another cage at the 1,000-foot level.

A mishap in the lift machinery, which fatally injured a workman, caused the cages to become struck Monday. The accident occurred at a mine near Carletonville, 60 miles southwest of Johannesburg.

A small service cage was used to rescue the miners. The cage inched its way down the shaft to the 1,000-foot level where 50 men trapped scrambled aboard.

The cage then reached the 4,800-foot level where the 13 were trapped. They, too, were hauled to the surface.

City Workers Endorse Tax

A union which represents municipal employees in several departments voted Monday night to endorse retention of the city income tax in its test at the polls at the Nov. 5 general election.

The endorsement was voted by Local 677, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, at a meeting in Carpenters Hall.

The local also voted a $25 contribution to the BOP Committee, a group conducting an advertising and publicity campaign to seek support for the tax issue.

Ken McCarty, president, presided.

A committee was appointed to plan the local's annual Christmas dinner. It is comprised of McCarty, chairman, Don Cornell, Everett Horner, James Cregar and John Ross.

The Travelers Hotel was selected as the local's regular meeting place. Next session will be Monday, Nov. 25.

Koppers Report Has Income Dip

Net income of Koppers Co., Inc., in the third quarter of 1963 was $1,838,000, equivalent to 76 cents per share of common stock.

Net income in the corresponding quarter of 1962, on a comparable basis, amounted to $1,939,000, equal to 80 cents per share, excluding an additional 34 cents per share realized as a non-recurring capital gain on the sale of the Thomas Flexible Coupling Co.

In the first nine months of 1963, net income totaled $5,536,000, equivalent to $2.28 per share, comparable for the same period last year, excluding the effect of the Thomas sale, of $5,664,000—or $2.31 a share.

Koppers sales in the quarter just completed were $76.3 million, compared to $79.4 million in the corresponding quarter of 1962. Total sales for the first nine months of 1963 amounted to $218.0 million, compared to $219.5 million last year.

Wellsville Man Held On Hit-Skip Charges

A Wellsville man is being held in Wellsville jail today awaiting a hearing on charges of leaving the scene of an accident.

Police said a car driven by John Binegar struck two parked cars on Commerce St. about 4:20 p. m. Monday.

Binegar then abandoned his car and fled on foot. He was arrested a short time later in a home on Center St.

Police said his car first hit a parked auto owned by Bob Dowling, 1722 Commerce St. in front of the Dowling home. Binegar then continued on and hit another owned by Mamie Taylor, 1422 Commerce, parked in front of the home.

Binegar then left the car and ran away, police said.

Jury Named In Trial Of Burglary Charges

Testimony began this morning in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon in the trial of John R. Reed, 32, of 4th St. and Broadway, Wellsville, indicted by the September Grand Jury for burglary of the Super-Foods Store in Wellsville last Jan. 24.

Judge Joel H. Sharp swore in the following jurors: Gladys Roberts, Naomi Drane and Arthur Heck, East Liverpool; Dorothy Kidney and Viola Weekley, Wellsville; Ruby Dunn, Salem; Gerald Weinstock and Lawrence Reynolds, Lisbon; Agnes Duncan and Helen Archer, Leetonia; Pearl Stoffer, Homeworth; Hazel Smith, Rogers; Fred Sautel of East Liverpool is alternate.

1 1/2 acre good building location in Glenmoor at the corner of John Street and Wyoming Avenue for just $1500. Paved road in front of the lot and could be a beautiful site, or even subdivided into more than 1 lot.

Very beautiful remodeled home on Rt. 30 at Westpoint, just $25,000. This home is completely remodeled from top to bottom with the latest modern kitchen, wall to wall carpeting, 2 complete baths, 4 bedroom, full basement, new furnace, and beautiful throughout, detached 4 car garage. Outside, Bar-B-Q, and fireplace. Good barn, plenty of frontage on Rt. 30 and about 90% of acreage is tillable. Possibility for trailer park or semi-commercial use.

100 x 150 foot level lot at the corner of Maple Lane in Calcutta. Priced at just $1500.

Over the hills and through the woods to your dream farm house and 75 acres. You will say it is a dream when you see the massive brick, 2 story home with the typical shade trees and general setting. Located 13 miles from the diamond and 5 miles from Lisbon near West Point. 2 1/3 of the acreage is good, tillable farm land. Excellent well and spring. Beaver Local school bus stops at the front door. Home has a nice living room and closed in front porch, plus large kitchen, bath and 1 bedroom or a dining room downstairs, plus 2 bedrooms upstairs, oil furnace, storm windows, screens and some out buildings, including garage. You could be in the home for an old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner for just $12,900.

OFF THE RECORD

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Tuesday, Oct. 29, the 302nd day of 1963. There are 63 days left in the year.
Today's highlight in history:
On this date in 1929, the great depression of the 1930s began when the New York stock market virtually collapsed. A total of 16.4 million shares changed hands on what is known as the most disastrous day in the history of the stock market.
On this date
In 1796, the first ship from the United States to reach a California port arrived at Monterey.
In 1835, the Morse alphabet code for telegraphy was patented.
In 1900, the first names were chosen for the Hall of Fame at New York University and included George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Daniel Webster, Benjamin Franklin, Ulysses S. Grant, John Marshall and Thomas Jefferson.
In 1923 the republic of Turkey was proclaimed.

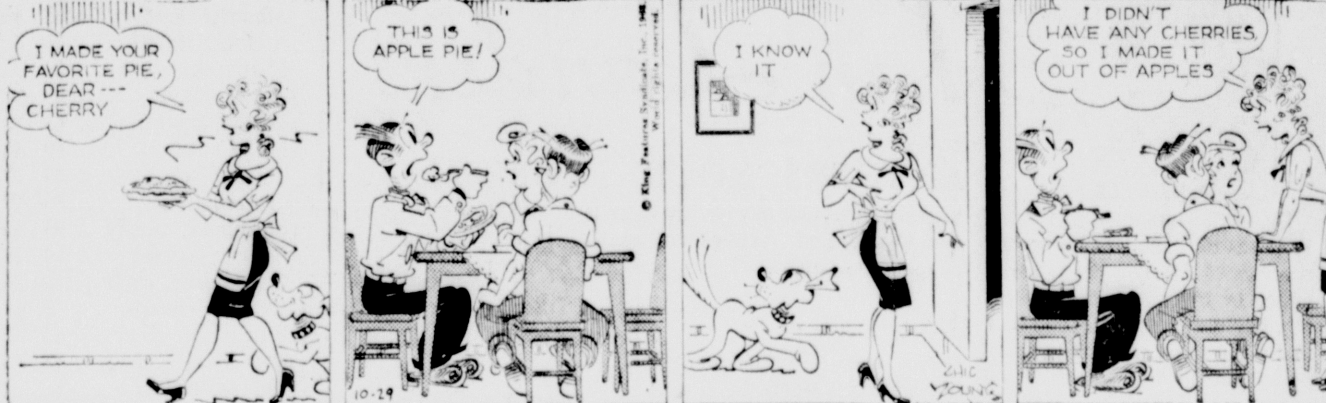

In 1949, Dr. Alonzo Moron was installed as the first Negro president of Hampton Institute.
Ten years ago... Nineteen persons were killed when a British Commonwealth Pacific airliner crashed near San Francisco.
Five years ago... The General Electric Company proposed mass production and widespread installation of 50 or more nuclear plants to make atomic power competitive with conventional fuels as early as 1965.
One year ago... At the request of acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant, the United States lifted its naval quarantine of Cuba as Thant flew to Havana for talks with Cuban premier Fidel Castro.
Want a "different" stuffing for deviled eggs? Mash the egg yolks (removed from the halved hard-cooked eggs) with butter and Roquefort cheese. Season to taste and pile the stuffing back into the cavities of the egg whites. Ruffle with a fork and sprinkle with paprika.

Junior Editors Quiz on SHIPS

QUESTION: Why are ships christened as if they were people?
ANSWER: People who use and love ships and boats have always had a special affection for them; they think of their craft as living things rather than just a collection of bits of wood, plastic or metal. Perhaps this is because water craft have been so useful and important to mankind. Boats have enabled men to gather food from the sea, to explore the ocean and sail new lands. And because the sea is dangerous to sail over, boats must be carefully and thoughtfully built. A boat is entrusted with human lives; so the boat builder puts loving care in her construction. Pride in his craft leads the boat owner to select a name as a symbol of her importance to him.
Christening is part of the Christian ceremony of baptism, as a name is given to the child and sanctified water sprinkled on him. Shipowners borrowed the idea of this ceremony for the great day of launching their ships. A lady sponsor is selected and she breaks a bottle of champagne over the bow. In our picture Kenny and John have built a beautiful little sail boat from a "kit" they bought. Now John's sister, Phyllis, is christening her by pouring some soda pop on the bow.
FOR YOU TO DO: Some day you may learn enough about using tools to be able to build a real kit boat from parts already cut to shape—as Kenny and John did. In the meantime build a boat from a model balsa-wood kit. It's a great way to get acquainted with water craft.
Christine Blaha of Amsterdam, N. Y., wins the daily grand prize of a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you too may win a set.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a boy 17 years old who has never had a serious conversation with either of my parents. It seems incredible that people can live under the same roof for so many years and never experience an exchange of ideas, but I swear it's the truth.

My parents are both professional people, socially prominent and well respected in the community. They are good speakers and in demand as lecturers. But they don't know how to talk to their own son.

I've tried to get my parents to talk to me but I've failed. They are polite, they clothe, feed and instruct me but they haven't the faintest idea of how I feel about anything.

My best friend's father never saw the ninth grade. He works in an automobile factory. His mother is a dressmaker. Yet there are fun and laughter and real conversation in their home. They are all friends. What is wrong in our house?—HIGH WALL.

Dear High Wall: In a word—no communication. The time to start talking to children is the moment they are born. Parents who don't think their youngsters have any ideas worth listening to find one day that their children are strangers.

Educated parents are not necessarily successful parents. No course in college teaches warmth, love and how to give and share. Such feelings are caught—not taught.

Big Spender

Dear Ann: My problem is a wife who is a spender. I work two jobs and make excellent money. I turn everything over to her and she gives me $5 a week.

We are forever being dunned by bill collectors. We can't afford a really nice vacation or a new car but we seem to have money for everything and anything a door-to-door salesman has to sell.

We borrowed money from my family five years ago to make a down payment on our home. This debt has not been repaid and I feel rotten about it because I know my folks could use the money.

My wife is a good mother and a pleasant person but I am tired both physically and mentally with this disorganized, frustrating way of life. What's the answer?—DOWN IN THE DUMPS.

Dear Down: Tell your wife the noble experiment is over and now you will handle the money and give HER an allowance. Plan a budget and stick to it. And please don't fail to include a monthly payment to your parents.

Another Vincent

Dear Ann: I just had to write to tell you how right you are. I was like Vincent's mother—wouldn't let my son out of my sight. I kept telling myself that my son needed me but I know now it was my weakness, not his. Today I am sad and sorry.

My "Vincent" is 22 years old and he can't decide what necktie to wear in the morning. He barely got out of high school and he stayed in college three weeks and then came home—like Vincent, who couldn't stay at camp.

My son has no friends, either boys or girls. All he wants to do is hang around with me and the other widows in my crowd. He is an overgrown baby and I'm to blame. Thanks for letting me get this off my chest.—VINCENT NO. 2'S MOTHER.

Dear Mother: Getting it off YOUR chest doesn't do much for your son. This boy needs professional help and I hope you will see that he gets it.

Confidentially

TO SHOULD I OR SHOULDN'T I? You should NOT. Tell him to take a long walk on a short dock.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

13-Point Plan Laid Down

Group Calls For Changes In Taxation Department

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Little Hoover Commission has laid down a 13-point program calling for reorganization of the State Department of Taxation.

Some recent changes made by the department are in line with the commission's proposals.

The commission, in a report to Gov. James A. Rhodes Monday, criticized the current operation and said its recommendations could save the state an estimated $300,000.

The commission said its study showed the tax commission's office does not function as economically and efficiently as it should.

"There are too many lines of authority, considerable overlapping of responsibilities and a noticeable lack of office unity," the report said.

Improvement can come from centralization, reorganization, & consolidation, the commission said.

The report said scattered offices in Columbus cause many administrative problems and called for all sections to be housed at one location.

Included in the report were recommendations to reorganize the office of the tax commission er by dividing it into five basic segments — administration, district activities, law, property taxes and sales, excise and highway use taxes.

The commission said $125,000 could be saved a year by consolidating the personal property and corporate franchise tax groups at the district level and in Columbus under one manager.

The report called for the combining of branch and district offices and suggests further study to determine if district offices of the sales, excise, and highway use tax division in Dayton, Akron, Zanesville and Portsmouth are needed.

Re-districting to a six - office structure could save on personnel and yield approximately $125,000 annually, the commission said.

The commission said that in some cities two branches of the Tax Department run separate offices—sometimes in the same building — with two separate staffs. The report said such offices in Cleveland, Cincinnati, Youngstown, Toledo and Lima should be consolidated wherever possible.

Some Pumpkin!

GASSAWAY, W. Va. — A huge pumpkin weighing 274 pounds has been donated to the Union Mission in Charleston by Mr. and Mrs. Amon P. Couger of Frametown, a Braxton County community. They are offering for sale to the highest bidder a smaller pumpkin, 114 pounds, with proceeds to go to the Hope Baptist Church at Frametown. The large pumpkin has attracted wide interest.

2 Men Purchase General Motors' Cleveland Plant

CLEVELAND (AP)—General Motors Corp.'s Cleveland diesel engine plant has been purchased by Albert A. Levin of Cleveland and James E. MacDonald Jr. of Lima. Price was not disclosed.

A General Motors spokesman said Monday that Levin, a real estate investor, and MacDonald, vice president of Ohio Warehouses, Inc., have signed a contract to exercise their option to buy the plant.

The investors noted the property was valued at $1.6 million on Cuyahoga County's tax books.

At the same time, Levin reported purchase last July of the former Industrial Rayon Corp. plant here from the Midland Ross Co. for about $1 million.

The diesel division employed 5,000 persons during World War II and was a major source of diesel engines for submarines. It closed in September 1962, when operations of the plant were taken over by GM's facilities at LaGrange, Ill.

New York Demolition Starts On Landmark

NEW YORK (AP) — Crews have started demolition work on Pennsylvania Station, a landmark for 53 years.

The station will make way for a futuristic sports palace and a 33-story skyscraper.

Electric jackhammers began tearing into the station Monday. Construction of the $70-million Madison Square Garden Sports Center on the site is expected to take three years.

During the construction, the station's 550 daily trains will continue to carry 200,000 passengers to and from the city. The tracks are below ground.

Hints for Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: When my daughter was old enough to sit up in her playpen, she needed something to occupy her attention.

I bought a piece of material to cover one side of the playpen and sewed two rows of pockets on it—just like a shoe bag.

One large pocket was in the middle of the bottom row with two small pockets on each side. There were four pockets across the top. I attached this toy bag on the side of the playpen with ties through the rungs.

Into these little pockets I would place all her toys, plastic measuring spoons . . . all the things that were safe for her to play with.

Then I put her in the playpen and showed her where the toys were kept. She would reach over and get one out of the pocket and chew on it and knock it around until she tired of it.

Then she would reach in another pocket and get something else. This consumed a great deal of time, and she had all the fascination of opening stockings on Christmas morning.

This stimulated locomotion since she wanted to get around the playpen, but most important it allowed me to do my necessary household chores.

After I removed her from her playpen and put her to bed for her nap I would pick up all the toys and place them back in different pockets! This kept the playpen neat and it was all ready for her the next time.

It was exciting for her to find which pocket held the special toy she wanted.

If any child's mother is too busy to make the above, a shoe-bag (the kind that hangs on closet doors) could be purchased and would serve the same purpose.

MARION P. GOSETT.

This is one of the cleverest ideas I have ever heard, another thing—when the child got older she could be taught to clean up her own playpen and put the toys back in the shoe bag pockets before she took her nap. This way . . . by the time she got old enough to clean her own room she would have already learned discipline and orderliness. Eh? HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When I want to slice potatoes after they are boiled, I put them in my little egg slicer and press the top down!

The whole cooked potato is sliced in even slices with no trouble at all and saves much time. I also use this for potato salad and for extra-thin fried potatoes.

After I boil carrots, I also slice them in my egg slicer!

When I cook fresh string beans I always use my scissors to cut the ends off and to cut them in any size pieces I want. It sure saves time and my hands, and it is so easy.

I also use a scissors to slice my bacon into small pieces.

FLORENCE O. D.

DEAR HELOISE: Don't waste any leftover ice tea. It is so easy to pour that tea into your refrigerator tray and make tea cubes instead of water cubes!

When putting these tea cubes in your ice tea . . . as they melt they will not dilute the tea.

This is also an excellent idea for leftover coffee! Ice coffee dilutes so quickly before you get down to the last dregs, especially if milk and sugar are added.

If I have only one cup of coffee left over I pour it in the ice cube tray. The next morning if I have another cup or half a cup of coffee left over I add it to the coffee in the tray, and in this way it keeps building up until the tray is full. Then have plenty of coffee cubes for my ice coffee.
